Note and Comment

There was nothing wonderful about the performance of the Englishman, except the impressive manner of his running. In fact, Shrubb satisfied the rancy that he is the legitimate champion at this dis-tence, and Longboat was heard to pe-mark after the race that he thought he the Indian) would stick to the regular distance of 26 miles 385 yards.

Joe Kelley is due in town to-day; then more about how Toronto will start out to again land the pennant and keep the crowd going to the is and grounds thru the long series in May.

The major league clubs are spending nishes an excellent illustration. Manager Stallings has thirty-two men at Macon. It costs $3 a day to board each man, and as the Highlanders will have been at training quarters or on the road for five weeks all told before they open the championship season, it is figured that the total board hill will be close to $3500. Railroad feres, sleeping car berths, express charges, salaries of trainer and officials and other items will bring the total up to fully $5000.
