MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD AT HOLY TRINITY CHURCH

Seventeen Soldier Members Honored at War Anniversary Service.

Honor to the seventeen members of Holy Trinity Church who have been killed in action abroad was paid in impressive services held in that church yesterday by unusually large congregations. The memorial service and the observation of the third anniversary of Great Britain's declaration of war against the central powers were held in the same service. Rev. L. Ralph Sherman in his sermon, after paying a tribute to the memory of those who have died in service, appealed for sacrifices and a rededication of lives to the works of God. He justified Great Britain's entry into the war and predicted that justice, truth and liberty would eventually triumph by the success of allied arms.

At yesterday's services in the Bonar Church resolutions were submitted by the pastor, Dr. MacGillivray and un animously adopted, in which the consprengation dedicated itself together with its means to the prosecution of the war and the winning of victory. The resolution's expressed the deepest veneration for the memory of those who have fallen, those who have suffered and are suffering wounds and imprisonment, and also extended sympathy to the bereaved. That the Military Service Act be put in operation with the least possible delay was the sentiment expressed in another resolution, and statement that an election at the present time would divert attention from the supreme issue of the war and would also cause partisan and readil strife was upheld. The congregation called upon the premier, Sir Robert Borden, to form a union government and asked that upon its formation parliament ask the imperial government to extend the life of the matton parliament ask the imperial government to extend the life of the present parliament until six months after the conclusion of the war.
