HORSE RACING BOOMING IN IRELAND

London, July 17.—The stoppage of flat racing in England has brought a large number of the leading owners, trainers and jockeys to Ireland, where the popular sport is enjoying its best season on record. At the time of the suspension in England an effort was made to cause a future meeting in the Emerald Isle no interference occurred. The stewards of the Irish Turf Club have received permission from the war cabinet to publish the following additional program of flat race meetings: Mullingar, July 16; Clonsilla, July 17; Limerick, July 18; Thurles, July 20; The Curragh, July 24, 25 and 26; Galway, Aug. 1 and 2; and the Curragh, Aug. 12. Lord Carnarvon, Major Clayton, T. Davidson, W. Raphael and R. E. Jones are a few of the best known English owners who have registered their colors to ride in Ireland.
