THREAT OF STRIKE BY IRONWORKERS

Will Walk Out at Week-End if Employers Fail to Grant Raise.

Hamilton, March 17 .- The first local building trades strike of the season may be effective on Saturday morning. At a largely attended meeting of the Structural Iron Workers' Union last night, it was decided to take extreme measures at the end of the week if the employers persist in ignoring the request of the organization for an increase in wages. The union wrote the firms engaged in that line some time ago and asked that their wages be increased to meet the soaring costs of living and intimated that a reply was desired by March 15. The communication was ignored, but another letter will be sent to the same firms con taining an ultimatum.

J. Stonard, who died at Davisville Hospital on Tuesday, and served with them in France up to the time that he received wounds in the thigh and arm at Ypres. When he had recovered from his wounds he returned to his regiment and remained there until he was gassed and wounded again in the battle of Passchendaele. From there he was invalided to Canada and on being discharged, took a course of vocational training in shoemaking. He fell sick, however, two weeks before Christmas and was unable to work, altho he dispensed with the services of a doctor. His wife and family of five young children were then living at 22 Phoebe street, and from there he was admitted to Davisville Hospital. There he died of Tuesday morning at 7.15, but as his wife was moving at that time to 57 Louisa street, she did not receive news of his death until that night, when she was taking some boots and fruit up for him.

She understood that he was improving in health and received a great blow when told of his somewhat sudden death. Wm. J. Stonard, who was 37 years old, came to Canada seven years before the war. The hospital authorities attribute his decease to severe neuritis. The funeral will leave Ross Craig's Undertaking Parlors at 2 p.m. on Saturday, and the remains will be buried with full military honors in the Veterans' Plot. Prospect Cemetery.
