SKATING.

The F. M. A. Sports.

There was a large crowd at the Queen's rink last night, and they were treated to a rare exhibition of skating. The main interest centered in the races in which Logan of this city and Robson of Toronto figured. Logan won the 220 and 440 yards and according to one of the judges the one mile. A large number of the people at the rink however, thought otherwise and were not slow to make it known. According to Judge John E. Wilson, the winner of the mile is in doubt and will be decided at a meeting this afternoon, but Judge Stephen Gerow awards Logan the race.

Robson led from the start with a clean swinging stroke with Logan a close second. A lap or so from the finish the final spurt started. Until the last lap Robson led, but was passed inside by Logan, who crossed the line a few feet ahead. In a moment pandemonium reigned. The crowd rushed on the ice and enveloped the skaters. Robson rushed up to protest that Logan had fouled him and the corner judge, Harry Griott, corroborated his statement. No decision was given, the judges leaving for home in the crowd. The two skaters were in doubt as to who won and Logan denied the foul. Mr. Wilson was asked later on and appointed a meeting for this afternoon to settle the matter. Robson had no difficulty in winning the half-mile, taking the lead and keeping it, with Logan second and Evans third.

HOCKEY.

Amherst 5, Truro 1.

Amherst, N. S., Feb. 6.—The sixteenth game of the Nova Scotia hockey league was played here tonight between Truro and Amherst. Much interest was manifested in this game as Truro has closely followed the Ramblers in their winnings this season and much depended on the results of tonight's match. The first half closed 1 to 0 in favor of the Ramblers, Twaddle scoring about one minute after the game was called.

The second half witnessed the best hockey of the season, the combination of the visitors being much admired. Murray and Twaddle each scored two goals in this half and Hennessey one of the Truro team. The score at the finish standing 5 to 1 in favor of the Ramblers.

Harvey Young, of Dartmouth, satisfactorily refereed, the game and did not have occasion to penalize a player.

Trojans Defeat U. N. B.

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 6.—The Trojans defeated the University hockey team in the local league match at the Arctic rink this evening by a score of 3 to 2. The Trojans leave for Sackville tomorrow morning to play a provincial league match.

The Sackville Tribune of Feb. 6th says: "The Sackville Hockey Team has lately had a communication from J. H. Hickman, president of Dorchester rink, with a view to arranging a match between Amherst and Sackville, probable champions of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, respectively. Mr. Hickman offered to put up a cup for competition or give a percentage of the gate receipts, or give $75 and expenses. The Sackville team have accepted Mr. Hickman's offer for a percentage of gate receipts, subject to the approval of Amherst."

FOOTBALL.

Canadian Team For England.

Canadian Rugby players can now prepare for a visit to Great Britain during the season of 1906, as negotiations are now underway for an all-Canada fifteen to tour Great Britain during that season. It was originally intended to have a team leave Canada during the coming season, but as all the available time has been secured by the New Zealand players, it would be inadvisable for the Canadians to go abroad during the time suggested.

A letter has been received by Mr. McClure, who has been instrumental in the recent trip to Great Britain of the all-Canada team, from G. Roland Hill, president of the English Rugby Union. Mr. Hill explains the present situation and suggests that the Canadians would be welcome the season after the New Zealand team had "done" Great Britain. Mr. Hill is quite enthusiastic toward the scheme of a visit by a Canadian team. By playing under the auspices of the E. R. U., it would be possible to secure better dates, and the complete itinerary to the visit would be more complete.

MAY BE ANOTHER.

Chicago Police Believe They Have Discovered a Matrimonial Juggler Who is as Bad as Hoch.

Chicago Feb. 7.—The Chronicle today says: That there is another matrimonial juggler in Chicago may soon be established through a discovery just made by the police. This discovery incidentally necessitates checking off many of the aliases claimed to have been used by Johann Hoch, under which name he was reported to have married Mrs. Mary Schults of Argos, Ind., in 1900, a woman who has never been seen or heard of since the month after her marriage. Others of his aliases may be checked off in the same way later. Albert Bushchberg, or Buschberg, is the name which Hoch was believed to have once used. The police have learned that another man, also a German who advertised for wives in German newspapers on the Hoch plan used this alias. This man is now in Chicago and is declared to be married to a woman whom he met by means of an advertisement in the newspapers and through communication with employment agents.

Inspector Shippey who found Bushchberg (correct) and talked with him once, has begun an investigation into the case. He is satisfied that Hoch never used the alias and has evidence to prove that a man now under surveillance advertised and wrote letters to women in Chicago, representing himself as Albert Bushchberg. Curtailing the Hoch list of forty wives already has begun by the police. When the process is over it is expected that there will remain about ten women who can be identified positively as having been married to Hoch.

A PSALM OF FARM LIFE

Chicago Chronicle.
Modern farming does not pay.
For a farm produces chickens.
And the hens—do they not lay?
Eggs are high and going higher.
And the price is soaring fast.
Every time we get to market
It is higher than the last.
Not a coop but it produces.
Every-day an egg or two;
So each farmer gets his millions.
Even though the hens be few.
Every egg is very precious
And the hens are laid in awe,
When a hen begins to cackle.
Then the farmer goes "Haw, haw!"
In the bread and busy faraway
Struts a rooster now and then,
But the shrewd, bewildered farmer
Only notices the hen.

Trust no rooster, however showy,
Be the prettiest in his fall.
Pay attention to the hiddies,
And your wealth will never fail.

Lives of farmers all around us
We may roll in wealth some day
If we hustle to the market
With the eggs our huddies lay.

"Why do so many farmers insist on playing Shakespeare?"
"I suspect," answered Mr. Stormont Barnes, "that it's because they can take all the credit if they succeed, and blame the public's lack of literary taste if they fail."

TRUST COMPANIES.

How Far Can Their Direct Advances to the Market be Extended?—Is There any Positive Limit to Their Expansion?

(N. Y. Evening Post.)

During the latter half of 1904 trust companies of New York State expanded loans $182,000,000. If the national banks had shown such an expansion, with a resultant increase in deposits, they would have been forced to increase their cash reserves—possibly by $45,000,000. The trust companies, however, reported a decrease in reserves for the same period, of $47,000,000. The ratio of cash, on hand or in bank, to all deposit liabilities of these 81 institutions, was about 29 per cent. on June 30. It was 18 per cent. on December 31. This raises the question, how much further could the "shifting" of loans, from banks to trust companies, have gone? In default of fresh resources contributed to it by its customers, each new loan by a trust company involves, of course, a draft to an equal amount on its deposit credit in the banks. But that means a draft on what the company describes as its reserves.

How far could this fund be drawn upon? So far as the State law exercises any positive restraint, the whole deposit fund in bank might be exhausted; for the law as it stands does not stipulate maintenance of reserves by trust companies. As against the 18 per cent. of last December, the ratio of trust company cash (deposited or on hand) to its own deposit liabilities, was 16 1/2 per cent. at the end of 1903 and 15 1/2 at the end of 1901. In the middle of 1901, after the wild stock-inflation movement of the spring, the ratio averaged barely 13 per cent.

Where is the line drawn? The fact is, that no two companies follow the same reserve policy, and many admit frankly that they do not pretend to carry through the year as much "cash on hand and in bank" as their December 31 reports show. The president of a prominent Broadway company admitted this week that he had occasionally found it necessary to wipe out his reserve for the benefit of a belated borrower. After closing the day with $400,000 in bank, he would sometimes draw out all but five or ten thousand dollars if a deserving customer needed the money. This he did not do until the next day. The office of another company having $400,000,000 deposits, said that on no account would he permanently deplete his bank balance, which usually averaged, with cash in vault, 20 per cent. of deposits; but he too admitted that he might impair it temporarily if he could accommodate a customer in no other way.

Some of the smaller companies often loan out all but 10 per cent. of the funds deposited with them. This practice has been followed by companies having deposits of less than $10,000,000, the largest companies

Correcting Bad Habits Not Enough.

NATURE NEEDS ASSISTANCE.

To cure a torpid and inactive liver, more is required than the mere correction of bad habits. You change your diet, reform your manner of living, but unless you assist Nature your efforts won't be a success.
When the liver and bowels are acting improperly, something must be done to put them in condition again. There is lack of tone in the liver action as well as in the bowels. You feel depressed and untidy for weeks, and are unable to do your work, and are not able to give the push-forward strength to your muscles. They stagnate the circulation, and make the liver active and the bowels regular. Smith's Plaster and Bismuth Plaster cure constipation, biliousness, headache in one night. 25 cents, all dealers.
