

St. John Man Is Killed In Action

Junior C. S. Ashwood Gives His Life at the Front—News of the Soldiers

The names of three New Brunswick men appear in the midnight casualty list: John, dangerously ill, A. W. Bell, pohaqui; wounded, J. W. Danahy, libert county.

even Recruits.

The recruits, numbering seven, who are secured in the city yesterday were: William H. Cassidy, Chatham, Royal engineers; Benson Robinson, St. John, 286th; Archibald McKeachan, Sunbury Co., 9th Siege Battery; James Wright, Hopewell, Albert Co., 9th Siege Battery; John McCaskill, Sydney, N. S., 286th; William R. Langley, St. John, 289th, and Emory Henderson, St. John, 289th.

Leutenant Sherren Promoted.

Friends in Sussex have received word that Lieutenant Percy C. Sherren, late of the Bank of Nova Scotia of that town, and at one time employed in the branch in St. John, has been gassed as a captain in the Royal Flying Corps.

With the 165th.

The 165th French-Canadian Battalion had the longest route march yesterday since the unit reached St. John. Under the command of Lieut.-Colonel D'Aigle, the O. C., the unit left the army yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in heavy marching order and proceeded to a point beyond Torriburn and then returned, arriving at the army about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Each man had a lunch with him and the sergeant cooks of the unit enjoyed a well deserved rest from the usual night duty, while in the evening the boys presented appetites that were unusually keen. The men of the unit stood up remarkably well under the strain of the march and proved to be in first class condition. Slowly but surely new recruits are being secured for them and the muster roll is continually lengthening. "D" company will be organized as soon as a few additional recruits are secured. The boys are bending all their energies toward the big concert to be held in the Imperial Theatre next week. The programme proposed for that occasion follows:

The King.

La Marseillaise.

Opening remarks—His Worship Mayor Hayes.

Grand overture by band of 165—La Marseillaise Acadienne.

Vocal solo—Anchored—Captain Jean Malenfant.

Quintette—When the World has Peace Again (A. E. MacNutt's latest song success)—Malenfant Bros., Legere Bros. and Corp. Johnston.

Soprano solo, selected—Miss Anderson.

Selection—(a) Garden of Roses, (b) Tesoro mio, (c) Cupid's Garden—Band 165th.

Vocal solo—The Wedding of Lorie McGraw—Corp. Alonzo Johnston.

Piano duet, selected—Misses Gilchrist and Baid.

Quintette—Good-bye, Good Luck, God Bless You—Malenfant Bros., Legere Bros. and Corp. Johnston.

Reading, selected—Miss McHarg.

Step dancing, old fashion.

Grand finale by band.

Closing remarks—Lieut.-Colonel L. C. D'Aigle, O.C., 165th Battalion.

The King.

HE WANTS NO THANKS

FOR A LABOR OF LOVE

Hunchback Barber Spends Spare Time Building Drinking Fountain for Town

Waldwick, N.J., Nov. 4.—James Santorelli is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

He is a little hunchback barber who clips and trims and shaves in his shop near the Erie Railroad station here all day long. But at night the shop is closed and Santorelli, clad in overalls, turns to the real business of his life, the erection of a concrete drinking fountain in the railroad station square.

For in the little barber is a civic pride, and appreciation of the friendly intercourse of the town folk through the twenty years that he has operated his little shop such as few men display even when they feel it. Santorelli has announced that he expects to finish his fountain in March, working nights and such odd moments as he can steal from his trade in the barber shop, and the mayor and members of the town council, who gave permission for the occupancy of the public square, have planned a big celebration for that day. Everyone in Waldwick will take part; everyone that is except Santorelli.

"There'll be too much talk. I don't want to be thanked. I'm going away

with the fountain."

Agony of Leg Sore Stopped by D.D.D.

Woman Tells Pitiful Story

"I am the mother of 12 children. I took a varicose ulcer on my leg at the birth of last child five years ago. I used every ointment that is made. I was laid up for nearly five weeks with a doctor attending me who did nothing but treat those kind of things.

"Doctors told me to lie in bed, but where there is a big family one cannot do that. Then I heard about D. D. D. and as I used to tear my leg at night until it was a bleeding mass, I determined to try a bottle. I can't tell you the ease it gave me. I never used to sleep for the pain. Many a time I nearly fell with the dizziness in my head from want of sleep.

"Now my leg is healed up, thanks to the blessed D. D. D. I never expected it to cure. I only got it to take away the terrible itch. By degrees I saw the big sore getting smaller.

"MRS. STITT."

292 N. Weston Rd., West Toronto, Ont.

Come to us and we will tell you more about this remarkable remedy. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you.

E. Clinton Brown, Druggist, St. John, N. B.

that day, and I'm not coming back until the celebration is over," says the little barber.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The thousands of workmen of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company and of the Dominion Coal Company throughout Cape Breton and at Springhill have been granted an advance in wages, immediately effective. The increase at the Dominion Iron and Steel Company amounts to ten per cent; at the Dominion Coal Co. ten per cent as a war bonus and a four per cent bonus, has been announced.

It is understood that Fraser's Limited are considering the erection of a pulp mill which will be run by a separate company with $4,000,000 capital. The site may be in Fredericton or on the North Shore.

The barge J. B. King Co. No. 28, with 220 tons of coal, while anchored off Partridge Island, N. S., sprang a leak, turned on her side and sank. The crew were all rescued by the tug Chester.

"77"

Humphreys' Seventy-seven

For Grip, Influenza

COLDS

The first stage of a cold is, diminution in the size of the bloodvessels, producing paleness, chilliness, shivers or rigors, with goose-flesh, a disposition to put on extra clothing, to creep towards the fire, to take stimulants and hot drinks, this is the stage of depression.

The use of "Seventy-seven" at this stage, gives the best results, and is almost sure to break up the cold.

"Seventy-seven" contains nothing harmful nor injurious and leaves no bad after effects.

A small vial of pleasant pellets, fits the vest pocket, handy to carry, easy to take. 25c. at all Drug Stores in all America.

TONIC TABLETS (HUMPHREYS')

For the convalescent, for the weak and the weary—Price, $1.00, at all Drug Stores or sent C. O. D.

Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Co., 166 William Street, New York.

SENDING MANY WOUNDED CANADIANS BACK HOME

London, Nov. 4.—With the reorganization of the Canadian hospital system in England many of the wounded who are able to stand the voyage across the Atlantic will be sent to Canada for treatment. This policy will be in the interest of economy and relieve the congestion in the hospitals here. An extension of the hospital system in Canada will be needed to relieve the pressure in England.

DON'T WEAR A TRUSS!

After Thirty Years' Experience I May Produced an Appliance for Men, Women or Children That Cures Rupture

I Send It On Trial.

If you have tried most everything else, come to me. Where others fail is where I have my greatest success. Send attached coupon today and I will send you the above is C. E. Brooks, inventor of the Appliance, who cured himself and who is now giving others the benefit of his experience. If ruptured, write him today, at Marshall, Mich.

free my illustrated book on Rupture and give you prices and names of many people who have tried it and were cured. It gives instant relief when all others fail. Remember, I use no salves, no harness, no lies.

I send on trial to prove what I say is true. You are the judge and once having seen my illustrated book and read it you will be as enthusiastic as my hundreds of patients whose letters you can also read. Fill out free coupon below and mail today. It's well worth your time whether you try my Appliance or not.

FREE INFORMATION COUPON

752 State Street, Marshall, Mich.

Mr. C. E. Brooks, Please send me by mail, in plain wrapper, your illustrated book and full information about your Appliance for the cure of rupture.

Name

Address

City

State

Country

Day

Month

Year

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

By

For

Woman Leads Prize-Winners

Cash Awards for Displays at New Brunswick Apple Show Announced

The New Brunswick apple exhibition was brought to a close last evening after a most successful run of three days. Despite the fact that the exhibition has been declared by experts to have been on a par with anything they have seen elsewhere, local people did not seem to appreciate the fact and the attendance was not at any time sufficiently large to tax the accommodation provided. More people attended yesterday and last night than was a good sized crowd.

There remains but little to do today but to pay to the winners of prizes the money which their exhibits had won. It is interesting to note that the heaviest prize winner at the fair was a woman, Mrs. R. W. Darius, of Fredericton, the total of whose prizes amounts to $88. F. C. & H. G. Smith, of Long Reach, came second with total winnings of $82.75, while third place is taken by B. F. Peters, of Gagetown, with a total of $69.

The cash prizes, which will be distributed to the winners this morning, are as follows:

J. W. Clark, Fredericton, $18.

Alban Dionne, St. John, $3.50.

Thomas L. Alexander, Fredericton Junction, $3.50.

Rev. Charles H. Fullerton, Prince William, $8.

N. A. Sterritt, Gray's Mills, $7.

St. John Valley Nursery, $84.75.

R. A. Smith, Elgin, $4.

John E. Holden, Lower Cambridge, $12.25.

A. P. Slipp, Upper Hampstead, $6.25.

B. F. Peters, Queensferry, $82.

J. W. McKel, Brown's Flats, $1.75.

Matthew P. Smith, New Brandon, $4.25.

Camber Bros, Springhill, $7.

Alexander G. Dunphy, Douglas, $12.25.

Mrs. E. W. Darius, Fern Hill, Fredericton, $88.

Robert J. Shaw, New Maryland, $50.

B. F. Peters, Queensferry, $82.

Harry Orchard, White's Cove, $6.50.

Thomas A. Clarke, Chartersville, $89.50.

William McFate, Upper Golden Grove, $3.

Frank Scott, St. Stephen, $2.

William Colpitts, Mapleton, $8.25.

F. A. Hubbard & Son, Burton, $26.

A. R. Gorham, Gorham's Bluff, $44.

R. A. Snowball, Chatham, $1.50.

Isaac Stephenson, Manguerville, $19.50.

W. P. Fox, Lower Gagetown, $56.

J. R. Dykeman, Upper Jemseg, $3.75.

B. J. Power, West Bathurst, $4.

J. W. Vanderbeck, Chatham, $3.

F. C. & H. G. Smith, Long Reach, $82.75.

W. B. Gilman, Fredericton, $82.50.

R. E. Floyd, Bloomfield Station, $20.

F. A. Hubbard & Son, Burton, $26.

Cosser Farm, per Jno. Melklojohn, Lower Gagetown, $44.75.

New Brunswick and British Colonization Company, per B. Hatheway, $18.75.

F. Habermann, Strathadam, $2.

See What St. John's Popular Fur Store is Showing

Hudson Seal Coats

We Guarantee you the lowest prices in Canada, on first quality Hudson Seal. We are showing some striking models in plain or trimmed with Raccoon, Alaska Sable, Lynx, etc.

Prices $150 Upwards

Black Pony Coats $50, $60 and $90 (Plain and Fur Trimmed)

Muskrat Coats The Coat of all service. We will surprise you with Quality and Prices

$50, $65 and $75

Wolf, Fox and Raccoon Furs at Thomas' Popular Prices

Mail Orders Will Receive Prompt Attention!

F. S. THOMAS, 539-545 Main Street

Price $15