

CHILDREN SAVED FROM FIERY DEATH IN NICK OF TIME

A thrilling escape from being burned to death was the experience of three children of Edward Prime, Fairville Plateau, when fire broke out early on Sunday morning in the room where the children were sleeping. But for the timely discovery by Mrs. Prime, who was aroused out of her sleep by the crackling of the flames in the children's room, which adjoined her own room, a tragedy would have resulted, as Mr. Prime was just able to get the children out of bed before the fire had caught the bedding.

One short hour later, so fiercely did the flames burn, his self-contained wooden house, that represented several years of saving, was in ashes and a large part of his furniture lay smoldering in the desolate ruins. Mr. Prime places an estimate of $5,000 to cover his loss. Both building and furniture were insured.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Horace King.

Her many friends in this city will sincerely regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Horace King, which occurred on Sunday in Boston. She was a former resident of this city, where her husband was engaged in the lumber business, but they removed to Brookline (Mass.) about ten years ago. Mrs. King was a great social favorite in St. John and was a woman of a most hospitable nature. She was a daughter of the late Robert G. Moran, of Liverpool (Eng.). Mr. Moran was a native of St. John county, but went to England, where he became a member of the firm of Moran, Callaway & Company, prominent ship owners. The only immediate relative that survives is her husband. Interment will be in Watertown (Mass.).

Miss Louisa Rowland Kilner.

The death occurred yesterday at the Old Ladies' Home, of Miss Louisa Rowland Kilner, aged eighty years. She was a daughter of the late Major-General James Kilner, of the Royal Bombay Engineers. Miss Kilner was born in India, but came to New Brunswick with her family sixty-three years ago, when her father was transferred to the Fredericton garrison. Miss Kilner, who had been in the Home for the last ten years, was a woman of bright intellect and fine education, and will be sincerely mourned by her friends. She is survived by two brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Walter and Charles, of Hamilton (Ont.), and the sisters are

Miss Ellen, at the Old Ladies' Home, St. John, and Miss Emily, at the Farlane Home, Fredericton. Funeral service was held at the Home on Sunday afternoon. The body will be taken to Fredericton by train this morning for interment at Kingscrown (N. B.).

John H. Hanlon.

Word has been received here of the death at Paris Island, South Carolina, of John H. Hanlon, formerly battalion sergeant-major of the 26th New Brunswick Battalion of the Canadian Expeditionary Force. He was formerly a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, but when he enlisted for war service had been engaged as a printer in Boston. His father, the late Dennis J. Hanlon, was a well-known horseman in the Maritime Provinces.

The Late D. C. Fisher.

The funeral of David C. Fisher will be held from St. Mary's church tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 2:30. Thorne Lodge, I. O. O. T., will conduct their ritual service at the house at 1:45 sharp.

Gordon Mayes Crawford.

Gordon Mayes Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crawford, of 40 Sewell street, died on Saturday, aged one year and nine months. He is survived by his parents and a sister, Vera. The funeral will take place this morning at 10:30 and will be private.

Mrs. Andrew Gould.

The death of Mrs. Andrew Gould occurred at Moncton, Thursday evening, following eleven months' suffering with cancer. Among the relatives surviving is a sister, Mrs. Emma Devers of St. John.

Mrs. William Maxwell.

The death of Mrs. William Maxwell occurred at her home, 81 Portland street, yesterday, in the seventy-second year of her age. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Samuel L. of Saugus, Mass., and W. H. of Bridge Water, N. S.; six daughters, Mrs. E. B. Seely of Everett, Mass., Mrs. R. E. Hannan of Toronto, Mrs. E. N. Harrington and Mrs. F. C. Jackson of this city, Mrs. H. J. Anderson of Renforth, and Miss Florie M. at home; and one brother, Henry McIntyre of this city.

Mrs. Olive Parkin Smith.

A Salisbury correspondent of the Moncton Transcript writes:—"The death of Mrs. Olive Parkin Smith, which occurred at her home on Friday morning, Jan. 6th, removes one of our oldest and most highly esteemed residents. Mrs. Smith, who had been in failing health for some length of time, was about eighty-eight years of age. She was twice married and is survived by one son, James Harris of Vancouver, by her first marriage. Mrs. H. C. Barnes of Moncton is a stepdaughter and Edward Harris of New York is a step-son. She is also survived by three brothers, Watson Parkin, of Salisbury, with whom she spent her declining years; Sir George R. Parkin, Rhodes Scholarship Commissioner, and James Parkin, a resident of the State of Maine. Mrs. Chapman, wife of Rev. A. B. Chapman, B. A., of Vale Verte, is a niece. Mrs. Smith, like her talented brother, Doctor Parkin, was a born educationalist. She was a successful school teacher in her girlhood days and has been a Sunday school teacher in the Salisbury Baptist church for probably seventy years, a lady of marked talent and a devoted Christian worker. Her connection with the Salisbury Baptist church has covered a period of nearly three-quarters of a century. Many women who today are grandmothers, can recall the good counsels received in their childhood days in Olive Parkin's Sunday school class in the old Baptist church at Salisbury. Those of a later generation who can remember Mrs. Smith all through their lives and have watched her faithful Christian work, feel that it would be difficult to conceive of a more ideal Christian character. Through a long useful life she gave of her best."

1,981 KILLED BY AUTOS IN N. Y. STATE IN 1921

National Highway Protective Society Shows 835 Fatalities, 251 by Trucks in New York City.

According to the National Highway Protective Society, 1,981 persons were killed by automobile trucks and passenger cars in New York State, including New York City, in 1921. This is the highest number of motor fatalities ever recorded in the State. The total includes twenty-five cases in which the cause of death was apparently an automobile, though it had not been definitely established pending inquiry.

Colonel Edward S. Cornell, Secretary of the society, said yesterday that fatalities in 1921 were 482 more than in 1920. In the City of New York automobiles caused the death of 835 persons, 281 of whom were killed by trucks. Colonel Cornell said, adding that the increase of automobile fatalities since 1919 in the State of New York was nearly 60 per cent. In 1919 the number of deaths was 1,270.

The report of the society shows that in December last 185 persons met death by automobiles in the whole State. Fourteen of these victims were occupants of automobiles when the chauffeur of the car failed to stop at a railway grade crossing. During the same month seventy-one persons were killed by automobile trucks and passenger cars in New York City. Trolleys killed six and wagons caused the death of one.
