POTATO PRICES IN HAVANA

Montreal, April 4.—Canadian potatoes secure publicity in the news both from Vancouver and from Havana. A despatch from Vancouver states that 500 tons of British Columbia potatoes which were shipped to Manila on the Canadian Pacific "Empress of Russia" will be a great advertisement for the agricultural possibilities of that province, according to Dr. Warnock, deputy minister of agriculture. The shipment was in the form of 10,000 one-hundred-pound crates. The potatoes were all grown in the Delta between Ladner and Cloverdale and it is a very creditable shipment. Dr. Warnock said, "There will be no danger whatever of the province losing its reputation abroad regarding the potatoes exported."

The potatoes were consigned to the Pacific Commercial Co., Manila, by Hayward & Scott of Vancouver. J. L. Gonzalez-Hoyuela, office of the Canadian trade commissioner, Havana, reports to the dominion government towards the end of March 15 that "the potato market in Cuba remains depressed. Late arrivals have not been large, and stocks in warehouses are being gradually reduced. Heavy arrivals are expected towards the end of the present month, and the 'Siellian,' of the Canadian Pacific Line, due early in April, is expected to bring a large shipment for the Cuban market. Sales are now being made at about $4 per sack of 180 pounds,
