At Least 329 Votes in Electoral College For Senator Harding

He Needed Only 266—Cox Given 127—Democrats Defeated Also in Race for House and Senate and for Governorships—President's Chair is Birthday Gift for Harding.

New York, Nov. 3.—One of the most sweeping Republican victories in party history today stood recorded for Senator Warren G. Harding for president and for a Republican congress. Tremendous and unparalleled Republican pluralities, beginning with the first count of ballots in yesterday's election, continued mounting today.

Defeat in their fight both for the presidency and congress was conceded early by Democratic national leaders on the basis of the crushing Republican vote, despite the absence, even early today, of final and official figures. With the presidency and congress went Democratic loss of Democrats of governors, state legislatures and other state and local candidates. The break even threatened to extend into the border states hitherto "solid south," with Republican gains in some southern states larger than any since the civil war.

CHOICE OF HARDING.

Governor Cox had safely the following: Alabama, 11; Arkansas, 11; Florida, 6; Georgia, 14; Kentucky, 13; Louisiana, 10; Mississippi, 10; North Carolina, 11; South Carolina, 15; Texas, 19; Virginia, 12. Total 127.

Lacking sufficient returns and doubtful were the following: Arizona, 8; Idaho, 4; Maryland, 10; Missouri, 11; Montana, 4; New Mexico, 5; New Mexico, 8; North Dakota, 5; Oklahoma, 10; Tennessee, 12; South Dakota, 3. Total, 75.

Tammany's Leader.

New York, Nov. 3.—Late last night Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, issued the following statement: "Governor Cox has made a vigorous and dignified campaign. However, the people have cast their votes for the candidate of their choice and the agitation of the campaign must now be forgotten. We must concentrate our thoughts on the welfare of the country."

THE NEW PRESIDENT.

Senator Harding, Republican, elected President of United States.

NEW VICE-PRESIDENT.

Governor Coolidge, Republican, chosen Vice-President of the United States.

Comment on Election.

Halifax Chronicle.—We do not believe that the American people are opposed to the league of nations or the great moral purpose behind it. It was the personal issue of Mr. Wilson, we rather believe, which influenced the vote. The tragedy of it all is that Mr. Wilson spent himself for a great ideal. His health is shattered; he is a broken man. He has been defeated in his effort to secure his countrymen's approval of the policy for which he strove so hard and sacrificed so much. But time will bring him vindication and when the clouds of personal animosity and bitterness are blown away the American people will readily acknowledge his greatness and accord to him the respect of honor and respect he deserves.

Halifax Herald.—In the interests of equity between the English speaking people, the Herald is glad that the end of the campaign has been reached. American politics is a tough game, and American politicians fight hard and with no respect that comes handy. There is no doubt whatever that much of the flabbug that has been spotted during the last two years about Article X, about British greed and American saintliness, and about international matters in general, has been spouted with tongue and cheek, and an off-eye on the political situation. Now the issue is decided, we look to see the American people regain their perspective promptly, for they are a resilient race.

EFFECT ON THE MARKET WAS DISCOUNTED

The Presidential Election and Money Men and Specula- tors in Wall Street.

New York, Nov. 3.—(10:30)—Stocks were firm and trading was broad at the opening of today's session but the general tone of the market indicated that financial and speculative interests have discounted the results of the presidential election. The only striking feature was heavy trading in South Pacific. That stock opened with a sale of 25,000 shares at 110 1/2, down by 100 1/2, a maximum gain of 50 points.

New York, Nov. 3.—Southern Pacific maintained its leadership throughout the morning, holding the greater part of its gain despite heavy selling for profits. Associated Oil, its subsidiary, gained four points and Royal Dutch also was strong, but other oils reacted with shippings, steel, equipments and numerous other stocks. Nervousness was shown by Crude Steel, United Fruit, American Woolen, International Paper and several of the leather issues, which lost three to six points. Investment rails were steady but the cheaper issues, particularly Southern Railway, Rock Island and Great Northern, were down 1 1/2 to 2 points. Call money opened at 9 per cent, and exchange rates on London and Paris were lower.

"What's goin' on there?" queried Hiram. "The Greeks," said the reporter, "are looking for a king. I have often thought it would be nice to be a king, and they appear to be having some difficulty in getting one in Greece just now. They talk of bringing a man in from Belgium. Paul was offered the job but he is in a hurry to leave Geneva."

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 3.—After a day spent in quarrelling with his wife, Wilfred E. Fredericks, a core-maker living at 542 Douglas Avenue, killed himself after trying four times unsuccessfully to murder her by shooting Mrs. Fredericks was struck by four bullets from Fredericks' .32-calibre revolver, but none reached a vital part, and at Hotel Dieu it is believed she will recover if no complications set in. The shot which ended the husband's life was fired through his month, the bullet emerging at the back of his head. The couple's younger children, Roy, 10, and Delmar, 12, were in the house in another room.
