PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN

So far, not many hostesses have gone day afternoon at her residence, in Gerto the country, consequently society has been a little less dull this week, several teas and luncheons contributing to the amusement of those who, on account gowned in white shadow lace over white of the chilly weather, have been detained satin. The beautifully appointed malater in town than usual. One effect of hogany tea table, almost covered with the cool atmosphere has been that for cluny lace and centred with red roses later in town than usual. One effect of the cool atmosphere has been that for some time past the golf links have been crowded with players, most of whom are of a younger set than formerly. This is a promising sign in view of the new club house and grounds contemplated at Riverside, as their purchase will entail extra expense as well as provision for a greater number of members. At present quite a lot of informal entertaining is going on at the club house at Mount Pleasant where, at the tea hour, the youthful players rest from their labors after a day's sport on the links.

One effect of the club as been that for some clumy lace and centred with red roses in a silver basket, was presided over by Mrs. George A. Lockhart, who wore a pretty blue and white organdy muslin and smart black hat, and Mrs. Rive, in copper colored brocade and black hat. Miss Gertrade deBury, who was gowned in cerise chiffon, was one of those who assisted with the refreshments, the others being Miss Mary Rive, Miss Rhoda Alcock, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Marguerite Wright. Mrs. Alexander Fowler and Mrs. P. Palmer conducted the guests to the dining room. Miss Lorna Kaye served the ices. Among those present were Mrs. Hugh Mackay, Mrs. King Hazen, Mrs.

rest from their labors after a day's sport on the links.

A very delightful entertainment was given by Mrs. Rupert Rive on Thursday afternoon at her charmingly appointed residence in King street east, in honor of her guests, the Misses Rive of Caraquet (N. B.), who have been visiting their brother for the past three weeks. A book tea was the form taken by the hostess to entertaain her guests. Each lady was expected to represent in some manner the title of a well known book, and the guest fortunate enough to guess the greatest number was given a prize. Some very clever devices were used to express the meaning of the book chosen. For correct guessing, Mrs. Leon-ard Tilley and Miss Grace Skinner recived first and second prizes. For the most original conception, Mrs. David P. Chisholm was awarded the prize. Mrs. Rive was exquisitely gowned in white charmeuse and shadow lacc. Miss Rive, who received with the hostess, wore a very pretty white safin gown trimmed with lace. In the dining room the beautifully appointed tea table was centred with yellow and purple Tris's in an atique silver vase and yellow candles and shades placed in silver candelabras and white flower wreathed that, presided over the china and glass. Mrs. Daniel Mullin, in pale blue charmeuse and white flower wreathed that, presided over the tea and coffee.

Mrs. Frank Peters gave a most entropy the control of the lecs. Among those present were drs. High Marsham Rrs. Amartstrong, Mrs. Peters gave a most entropy the pointed the guests, Mrs. Sinse and the legs of the control of the safety of the control of the safety of the control of the safety of the lecs. Among those canders and shades placed in silver candelabras and shades placed in silver candelabras and white flower wreathed that, presided over the china and gia charmeuse and white flower wreathed

A. U.

Skinner's

Stock of

SQUARES

550 Designs to select from

The largest ever imported in the Maritime Provinces, Squares being the principal covering for drawing - reoms, dining - rooms, dens and libraries.

The assortment is most complete in all the new combinations of colors and the latest designs from the best makers in Great Britain, in

A very pleasant informal drawing room tea was given by Mrs. John E. Sayre last Tuesday at her residence, King street east, in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Wood, of Chatham, when she wore a very dainty costume of old rose and black satin. Mrs. Wood was charming in pale blue crepe de chine and net. Mrs. Fred E. Sayre presided over the prettily decorated tea table and had as assistants Mrs. Bert Church, Miss Norah Robinson, Miss Jenetta Bridges, Miss Kathleen Trueman. Other guests were Mrs. Gordon Dickie, Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Mrs. Hugh Mackay, Mrs. Pollard Lewin, Mrs. George A. Lockhart, Mrs. T. Escott Ryder, Mrs. Alexander Fowler, Miss Elise McLean, Miss Frances Stetson, Miss Janie Stone, Miss Helen McAvenney.

On Wednesday of last week Mrs. W W. White gave a small enjoyable tea at her residence in Sydney street as a farewell to Mrs. Freeman Lake, who has since then gone to reside at Sackville (N. B.) At the daintily appointed tea table Mrs. Fred Schofield presided and was assisted by Miss Grace Skinner. Among those present were Mrs. Leonard was assisted by Miss Grace Skinner,
Among those present were Mrs. Leonard
Tilley, Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Mrs.
Frank Starr, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs.
Roy Campbell, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner,
Mrs. W. H. Purdy, Mrs. Charles Bostwick, Mrs. Charles Coster, Mrs. H. B.
Robinson, Miss Travers, Miss Edith Skinner, Miss Frances Travers.

Lady Tilley has issued cards for an at home to be held at Carleton House on Tuesday afternoon, May 12, at 4.30

At a meeting of the Imperial Daughters of the Empire, de Monts Chapter, at the residence of Mrs. George K. McLeod, Burpee avenue, on Wednesday morning, the gratifying announcement was made that the proceeds from the bridge and dance held recently in the Kaith assembly rooms under the aust Keith assembly rooms, under the auspices of the de Monts Chapter, the sum acquired after all expenses had been paid amounted to $212.89. Most of this sum McAlpin hotel, New York, visiting Miss McAlpin hotel, New York, visiting Miss Alice Morgan, are guests at the McAlpin hotel, New York, visiting Miss McAlpin hotel, New York, which was McAlpin hotel, New York, which was McAlpin hotel, New York, which was vill be devoted to defraying the ex Morgan's mother, who is Mrs. Belmont's

WHITE HOUSE BRIDE AND GROOM OF THURSDAY; PRESIDENT'S OTHER DAUGHTERS

There was a very large audience present who spoke enthusiastically of the lec-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fairweather expect to leave this evening or a ten days' visit to Boston and New York.

Mrs. Ira Cornwall and daughter, Miss May, left on Thursday for Smith's Cove (N. S.), to spend the summer. Miss Cornwall intends going to Windsor to be present at the college ball which takes place next week at the conclusion of the closing expresses. Mrs. John McAvity arrived home

Mrs. Edmund Breese returned to St John on Monday after a pleasant visi

Mrs. Charles Gregory, of Fredericton, was the guest this week of Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Coburg street. Mr. Stark, who is to lecture before

Mrs. Frank Peters expects to leave this evening for a ten days' visit to Boston. Many friends will be interested in

MISS MARGARET WOODDOW WILSON

Mr. Guy Berton, formerly on the staff occupying her home, 195 Princess street.

Mrs. Leith, who spent part of the vinter with her son in Boston, is now old mahogany furniture which took place at the Yates farm, on Manawagonish road, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Vroom is a guest at Wentworth Hall, Elliott row.

West St. John, who spent part of this week in Moncton, are now in Halifax, where Mr. Thomas is attending the Miss Katie Drysdale and Miss Dorothy Whitman passed through St. John this week on their way to Halifax from Methodist book room committee Montreal, where they attended as brides-maids at the Malcolm-Cahan wedding.

Mr. Andrew Malcolm was tendered a complimentary dinner in Bond's on Thursday night by the teachers and officers of St. David's Sunday school, in Mrs. Leonard McGregor are honor of his fifty years' association with Mrs. Campbell's, Carleton that work in the church.

Mrs. William Angus and Mrs. J. Lup- Miss Sophic Bayard is the guest of Miss Mae Harding in Middletown (N.

The High School Reading Club spent a pleasant evening in the exhibition hall of the High school on Thursday, when the meetings were closed for the season.

Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen arrived in St

Miss. May five, Miss Maddien Description of the Misses May filter assisted from the week from Mrs. David P. Chisholm, Miss George Carvill, Mrs. Frank Peters gave a most enjoyable tas at her residence in Germain were Mrs. James Dever, Mrs. Leith, Mrs. Leith, Wohlton Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Leith, Wohlton Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Leith, Mrs. Leith, Wohlton Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Dever, The Gown Hideth the Corset But how often one sees the drape of an exquisite gown spoiled by the corset beneath. Such a thing cannot happen to a woman who has carefully chosen a pair of Because there is a model designed to fit every conceivable type of figure and every trend in fashion's present vogue. CROMPTON CORSET CO. Limited 78 York St., TORONTO is most complete, having imported 15,000 yards; Printed, from 40c. to 85c.' up to 4 yards wide; Stainer & Nairn's Inlaid, from 90c. to $1.40. Plain and Patterned Cork Carpets for offices and bedrooms in great variety. The best wearing floor covering made.

A. U. Skinner's Stock of

Linoleums

Special Attention has been given to Carpets for rooms, halls and stairs, with Borders to

to cover floors entirely.

match, in Axminster, Brussels and Tapestry, for customers who want

Special English Axminster at $1.50

O. SKINNER

CURTAINS

In all the New Scrims and Marquisettes

Axminster Wilton Brussels Tapestry and

Wool