Three Witnesses on Stand in The Case Against Joseph Stewart— Complainant Tells Her Story

-Sale Made Known Today

An important real estate transaction was at through today when T. Collins and H. Mott become the owners of the tion Baptist Seminary at St. Martins, a te three story building, with concrete sement. The building is well known to tany about the city, and anyone who has are visited the pretty little township will member it as an imposing, nicely fitted ructure, well suited for the purpose for nich it was erected, and easily convertible to a modern hotel, or other such purpose. It was built some years ago and used a seminary conducted under the principalship of the late Rev. Mr. Hopper for me time. Recently it has not been used such, however, but has been taken care by a caretaker who occupied some of the rooms. The late Captain Masters, to did in the building of the seminary at the new then the idea was projected, gave a ant of $20,000 towards it, with about 100 res of land, and at the time it was erect, the cost in total was about $46,000 day it is said the same building could but be put up for less than twice that m.
