ST. JOHN BOYS FAIL TO WIN ANY EVENTS AT LAKE PLACID MEET

FRANCIS ALLEN LEADS SKATERS IN BOTH EVENTS

Gorman, Logan, Tebo And Snodgrass Win Places

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Francis Allen, Chicago skater, who wears the international amateur outdoor speed skating crown, put his right skate foremost here yesterday in a quest for the National diamond and won both events on the American Diamond Trophy program, the 220 yard and one mile races.

Farrell Wins Race.

O'Neil Farrell, also of Chicago, started in to help Allen make it in all Chicago meet, winning the 220 yard event in the Lake Placid trophy contest, aided by Roy McWhirter, Chicago, who placed third. His plans were upset, however, when Leslie Boyd, New York, won the two mile race in the Lake Placid trophy contest, and Eddie Murphy, Chicago, had to content himself with third place.

Shows Way To Gorman.

In winning the 220, Allen showed the way to Charles Gorman, St. John, the title holder, who placed second. Joe Moore, New York, was third, after making the crowd think he had the race tucked away for his own uses. The time was 20 seconds flat.

Allen's victories gave him 60 points for the title. Gorman and Donovan had 20 each, and Moore and Baile 10 each. Joe Moore was in leading position for the Maxwell 300-point trophy, with 290 points. Gorman has 240, and the others trail after.

The Diamond Trophy events scheduled for today were the two mile and half-mile races. The Lake Placid trophy card included the half mile and one mile events.

Maritime Amateur Boxing Bouts Promise To Furnish Many Thrills

Along the Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

ACCORDING to late reports from New York betting was even on the two world's champions, Willie Hoppe and Bob Cannex, who were scheduled to get away this afternoon in their three-cushion billiard series. A few weeks ago Hoppe, king of the billiard game, was a favorite over the three cushion star 6 to 5, but after the latter's decisive victory over Welker Cochran the betting shifted and Cannex was ruled a favorite. However, Willie Hoppe came across with sensational plays during the last few days and another change took place and even money was prevailing. Cochran, who has frequently played Willie Hoppe at 182 ballline and who was defeated by Cannex recently, said the breaks would decide the issue between the cue experts. He refused to predict a victory for either. Welker has played them both and should be able to pass an opinion. It will be surprising if Hoppe does win for three-cushion billiards, until recently, were not in his line. He specialized in balkline play and held the world's title for many years.

DOUG. MCKEAN is certainly making a great showing in the Canadian badminton championships in Ottawa. He eliminated the Canadian champion Dr. H. T. Douglas of Ottawa and today was to compete in the semi-finals. Here's hoping he brings the title to St. John.

BRITISH turfmen are apparently apprehensive concerning an invasion of United States and French crack runners in the coming season, which is scheduled to open at Lincoln about the end of March. Judging from reports published about the English turf, racing there is as vigorous as ever it has been. The records show that 4,336 horses participated in different meets last season and that their owners netted over $3,500,000 in purses. French owners, who had a number of victories last year, have entered several horses for the Lincoln handicap and the big races at Ascot. They have 12 of their best runners in the Ascot Gold Cup, which is booked for June 18. Judging from articles appearing in some of the English sport sheets an American invasion is more greatly feared than the French. Already many horses from the States have been entered for the big turf classics this season. A. K. Macomber, who took over the late W. K. Vanderbilt's establishment in France, is said to be the chief menace. He has entered 11 colts in this year's Derby, eight in the St. Leger and nine fillies in the Oaks. From this it will be seen that there may be good reason to fear exceptionally keen competition.

THE RESULTS at Lake Placid yesterday were disappointing from a local standpoint. The best Charlie Gorman could do was second in the 220 yards, while the seniors in the Lake Placid events failed to place. Willie Logan and Tommy Tebo took second in their races. Conditions may be more favorable today and the St. John contingent may turn the tables on their Chicago rivals. Joe Moore looks like a certain winner of the beautiful Maxwell cup as he only needs 10 points to complete the required 900. Gorman with 240 points will have to take two firsts to make up the necessary total.

EDDIE COLLINS, conceded to be the leading second sacker in the American league for many years who was appointed manager of the White Sox, is apparently worried over a marked weakness at short. He recently admitted that his pitching staff is not as strong as he would like, but said that shortstop is his greatest worry. Realizing that this is the greatest weakness on his team he is keen to secure a likely candidate to fill the gap. He will play Kamm at third, Sheely at first and will hold down the keystone sack himself. There is a golden opportunity awaiting some young player for it would be hard to break in with a more brilliant strategist than Eddie Collins will be able to make a trade before the season opens, if not he will have to keep a sharp eye on promising youngsters at the Spring training camps and depend on "dame fortune" to guide him in his search.

Slattery Gets Decision From Jack Delaney in Slashing Bout

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Jim Slattery, Buffalo's dancing middleweight, shaded Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., in a slashing six-round match at Madison Square Garden last night, the Buffalo lad scoring his second victory of the indoor season over his middleweight rival.

The fight was a bitterly contested boxing and slugging match between two past masters at both arts. The pace was furious from the start. Slattery forcing the fighting except periodically when Delaney, driven to cover, took the aggressive as the best means of defence.

Pouring a tantalizing left jab into Delaney's face, then crossing with a pile-driving right which sent him reeling, Slattery established a maddening pace, but Delaney trailed along, never badly behind but just shaded and beaten to the punch. It was one of the most spectacular matches ever seen in the historic garden outside of the championship circle.

Delaney seemed content to trail Slattery until the closing minutes of the match, when he opened up an offensive that threatened to cripple his dancing opponent, but by clever use of his arms Slattery weathered a fury which had been brewing for five rounds. It was a clean fight.
