LOCAL NEWS

TO STUDY JOURNALISM.

Sackville Post: David Allison expects to leave today to enter Wilberham College, some 50 or 60 miles from Boston, where he will study journalism.

ENGAGEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tennant, Amherst, N. S., announce the engagement of their only daughter, Dorothy Havell, to Wilfrid Wright Parry, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Owen Parry. The marriage will take place the latter part of September.

SUPT. BAIRD INJURED

Supt. Baird of the experimental farm, Nappan, was quite badly injured on Wednesday by his forearm coming in contact with a revolving knife. The arm was slit about four inches and required several stitches to close.

COAL FROM JOGGINS

The first water shipment of coal for a number of years from the Joggins was made a few days ago when the schooner Edna May cleared with a cargo of Grand Manan. This is the first of several shipments to be made by water this fall.

HOME TROUBLE.

In the police court, this morning, William Butler of Britain street was charged with having assaulted his wife yesterday. He pleaded not guilty. Mrs. Elsie Anderson, a neighbor, gave evidence. The case was postponed to this afternoon.

THE NEW KINDERGARTEN.

A number of children met at the new kindergarten in the Syrian Hall this morning and were registered by Miss Ross and Miss Kierstead, who are in charge. Actual work will not be commenced until next Monday morning, as the room is being redecorated.

NOVELTY SHOWER.

Friends gathered at the home of Miss Letitia Duffy, 204 Chesley street, on Monday evening and tendered her a novelty shower. Many beautiful gifts were received, including silver, china and linen. The evening was spent in music and dancing. Refreshments were served. Miss Duffy is to be a principal in an interesting event in the near future.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Peter Murphy was held this morning from his late residence, 185 Waterloo street, to the Cathedral for high mass of requiem by Rev. R. McDonald. Rev. R. McCarthy was deacon and Rev. S. Oram sub-deacon. Interment was in the Old Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were relatives. Many floral offerings and spiritual bouquets were received.

The funeral of William H. Foley, who died in Moncton recently, was held from the home of his son, in Fairville. Rev. C. T. Clarke conducted the service. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

BENEFIT DANCE.

A benefit dance was held in the Odd-fellows Hall, West St. John last evening, in aid of the Street Railwaymen's Union, No. 668. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served. The committee in charge was under the patronage of Mrs. Jones, who was assisted by the wives of members of the union on the West side, Mrs. J. White, Mrs. J. Williamson, Mrs. G. Cheyne, Mrs. Scribner, Mrs. Sewell, Mrs. P. Mitchell, Mrs. A. Peene, Mrs. C. Hill, Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. F. Johnson and Mrs. H. MacDonald. A nice sum was realized. F. A. Campbell furnished a union bus to take the Fairville people to their homes.

WATERLOO STREET.

A property owner in Waterloo street called on the Times this morning to say that he and others felt very strongly that Waterloo street should be paved, even before that treatment is given the Marsh Road. He said the traffic is always heavy, and the street in bad condition. It is a dangerous place and while the pedestrian traffic is always large and sometimes congested there is also a great motor traffic. The taxes of property owners have been much increased and they are not getting a compensating benefit. The street is littered with rubbish and can never be kept as it should until there is a proper surface. The citizen said he would not ask for heavy paving material, but for a proper curb sidewalk and surface that would insure cleanliness and comfort.

OVER A SMALL SUM.

Patrick McIntyre and Frank O'Neill were before the magistrate this morning charged with acting together and creating a disturbance in Peters street. Both pleaded guilty. Policeman Donahue told of seeing them at 7.15 and asserted that they were in an argument and were creating a disturbance. It appeared that the trouble arose over the magnificent sum of twenty cents claimed by one to be due and owing by the other and it was claimed that no part of the debt had been paid by the debtor. It was said the cause of action arose out of a pool game at the corner pool room. The magistrate had much ado to extract from the two accused the nature of the argument but finally one admitted the cause. They were fined and the fine was allowed to stand. Both left the court wreathed in smiles.

ARREST FOLLOWS ANNAPOLIS FIRE

Wm. Webber of Digby is Charged With Having Two Antique Chairs Missing from a Church.

Digby, N. S., Sept. 14.—William Webber, 31 of this town, was arrested here last night by Chief of Police Horace Kennedy of Halifax, charged with having in his possession two antique mahogany chairs valued at $500 and missing from St. Luke's church, Annapolis Royal, since the night of the great fire last week.

PROMINENT MEN AT THE FUNERAL OF HON. MR. POWER
Halifax, N. S., Sept. 14.—Many persons of prominence, including the lieutenant governor of Nova Scotia, judges, senators and members of parliament attended the funeral of Senator L. G. Power today. Requiem high mass was celebrated in St. Mary's cathedral.

GOOD RECORDS IN PAYMENT OF THE WATER RATES

Twice this week the record for water assessment payments at city hall was smashed. On Monday about $31,900 in water rates was received in the office of the city chamberlain in payment of this year's levy, the amount being the largest received from this source in any one day in the history of the city. But Tuesday the last day of the discount period brought forth an even greater response and the total for that day will exceed $42,000.

SEPTEMBER PRIZES

Sinclair-Parlee.

An interesting event took place at four o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Parlee, 120 Main street, when their daughter, Miss Greta M., was united in marriage with Rankine Murray Sinclair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rankine Sinclair, King street east. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. D. Hudson, pastor of the Victoria street United Baptist church. The house was profusely decorated with flowers and the bride looked altogether lovely in her wedding gown of ivory tulle, carrying a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Zella Parlee, wearing a dress of pale blue satin with pink trimmings and a large pale blue veil. She carried a large bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Little Miss Norma Parlee was flower girl and looked very winsome in a dress of white net over pale yellow, with poke bonnet. She carried a basket of golden glow prettily arranged. The groom was supported by Burton Wisely. Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Blake Ferris sang very sweetly "O Promise Me." At five o'clock a buffet luncheon was served and the bride and groom left by C. N. R. for the Pacific coast and intermediate points on an extended honeymoon of two months. On their return they will reside at the Esplanade, Lancaster Heights. The bride traveled in a suit of navy blue velvet trimmed with beaver and French hat of navy blue.

Mrs. Parlee, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blue canton crepe with panels and flowers of grey and corsage bouquet of deep red roses. Mrs. Sinclair was becomingly gowned in black canton crepe trimmed with gold lace, and carried yellow roses.

The groom's present to the bride was a diamond and platinum dinner ring; to the bridesmaid a pearl ring; to the groomsmen a pearl stick pin; to the flower girl a pearl pin. The gifts were very numerous and valuable and included a very substantial check and baby grand piano from the bride's father and a check and chest of silver from the groom's parents. The bride is a graduate nurse of the Royal Victoria hospital, Montreal, class of 1919. The groom is a member of the firm of Linton & Sinclair. Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a long and happy married life.

O'Leary-O'Leary.

St. Peter's church was the scene of an interesting event this morning at six o'clock, when Mr. and Mrs. Denis Coll, C. S. S. R., united in marriage Miss Mary Agnes, daughter of William O'Leary, Murray street, and Francis Harold O'Leary of this city. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a very becoming suit of brown trimmed with mauve and wore a large hat. She carried a white prayer book. The church organist played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the church. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, where James Duffy delighted all present with several solos. Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary left on the Boston boat this morning for Boston and other cities in the United States, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 44 Murray street. The groom is an ex-service man, having been overseas with the 26th Battalion. Both he and his bride are popular in the city and a host of friends will extend best wishes. Many presents were received, testifying to the esteem in which they are held.

Short-Whelpley.

Portland Methodist church was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding this morning at six o'clock when the pastor, Rev. H. B. Clarke, united in marriage Miss Florence Maude, daughter of Mrs. and the late Henry T. Whelpley of 55 Harrison street, and Aubrey A. Short. The bride, who was becomingly attired in a suit of navy blue serge with seal scarf and hat to match and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Little Miss Margaret Holder, niece of the bride, made a pretty flower girl. The bride was given away by her cousin, Frank Whelpley. The groom is one of the original members of the 26th Battalion and is now employed as shipper with the Willet Fruit Company. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Short will reside at 100 St. James street. Many and beautiful presents testified to the good will of friends for both the bride and groom.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

Many rumors of the way in which the parties will stack up in the coming federal contest have been current since the announcement of the pending election, and each day brings forth its new crop. It was said today that Hon. R. W. Wigmore, minister of customs and excise, will retire and that Hon. D. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., is named as government member from this province. While early reports have Mr. Wigmore slated for the vacant senatorship in New Brunswick, this opinion is gradually wearing away. George B. Jones, M. P. for Kings, has been named as a probable candidate for the federal contest in Royal. What disposal will be made of the present minister of customs and excise is a matter of conjecture, but the feeling is expressed that some berth in the government employ will be found for him. There is also talk of Dr. Baxter and L. P. D. Tilley as the St. John-Albert Conservative ticket.
