Christmas and New Year Mails

The early mailing of Christmas and New Year parcels for Naval Reservists and members of the Newfoundland Regiment at the front is urged by the Post Office department. The mailing of such parcels should take place before the middle of the present month. It is possible that letters mailed up to within the last week of November will be delivered to Overseas Troops before Christmas, but irregularities and uncertainties in the Field Mail service cannot be avoided.

The rates for parcel post are:
 TO BRITAIN,
 Up to 3 lbs. 24 cents
 Over 3 lbs. to 7 lbs. 48 cents
 Over 7 lbs. to 11 lbs. 72 cents
 TO FRANCE,
 Up to 3 lbs. 62 cents
 Over 3 lbs. to 7 lbs. $1.00
 Over 7 lbs. to 11 lbs. $1.38

Parcels should be securely packed, and bear, in addition to the name and address of the sender, the value and description of the contents.
 Parcels sent to any members of the Regiment, whether in France, Belgium, or England, if directed c-o Pay and Record Office,
 58 Victoria Street,
 London, E. C.

will be transmitted at the rates for Britain, as above quoted.

Market Notes

(From Trade Review, Nov. 18.)

CODFISH.
 Shore merchants hold their own at $8.60 to $8.20. Labrador Shored, good, dry, is $7.70. There has, however, been a slump this week in Labrador Soft from $6.80 to $6.30, and with some firms to $6.00. This is due to two facts that have arisen lately—first, there are large quantities of Icelandic fish coming into Spain and Italy since the beginning of this month, and it eminently suits our markets for Labrador Soft; second, it is more difficult than ever to get permits in England to send large steamer cargoes into Greece. Last week this condition amounted to a "hold up." When the news reached here, exporters, especially those already well supplied, shied off from buying.

CRIMINAL LAW Against Combines
 The Canadian Government has recently passed an Order-in-Council under the authority of the War Measures Act as a remedy to meet the continued increased cost of living.
 It makes it legal combinations in restraint of trade or for the enhancement of prices, makes it illegal for any company as well as any private individual to hoard up unduly food, clothing, fuel and materials of manufacture entering into the course of trade, provides for investigation, either by the Dominion Labor Department or by any Municipal Council, of any case of price enhancement, and requires sworn statements and full disclosures of costs, stocks, contracts, selling agreements, etc., by all accused firms.
 The Order in Council defines as necessities of life a staple or ordinary article of food, whether fresh, preserved or otherwise treated, clothing and fuel, including the products, materials and ingredients from or of which any thereof are in whole or in part manufactured, composed, derived or made.
 The penalty for infraction of any of the regulations is a fine not to exceed $5,000, or imprisonment for any term up to two years, or both.

COGOL.
 There were large transactions here in common oil the past week, when some seventy schooners were in port with the season's catch. The regular price paid was $175.00 per ton for good oil. There were two more, and some who received less, transactions depending on the quantity to be sold by each individual, and the quality of the oil. The foreign markets are holding good, and the price will keep up, probably going to $180.00 in the New Year. Refined oil has not improved on last week's prices, and independent sellers, who search the town, are glad to get $1.40, when they find that the general offer is $1.30 to $1.35. The foreign demand is showing little signs of improvement.

FLOUR.
 The flour situation is stronger than ever this week. Leading brands are now quoted at $11.50, and second qualities from $10.90 to $11.30, wholesale. Wheat has reached the $2.00 a bushel point in some of the U. S. markets. The war demand and damage reports to crops in Australia and Argentine have aggravated the situation, and dealers are now looking forward to $15.00 flour before midwinter.

PORK.
 The prices have not changed since last issue, but, owing to the abnormal demand now setting in at the packing centres, may at any moment. It is difficult to get orders filled, and the supply is not at all equal to the demand. Ham Butt is $23.50, Fat Back and Clear $21.50, wholesale. No one expects lower prices for pork during the next four months at least. Owing to the high rates local buying has fallen off about 33 per cent.

BEEF.
 "Scarc and dear" are the words that characterize the beef market at the present time. Importers here find it difficult to get their orders filled, and have to wait for weeks before the shipments are placed on the coast. The stocks of cattle are reported to be short of the normal at the packing points, and assurance of big war orders makes it difficult for ordinary business requirements to receive prompt attention. This, also, is

A Request From The Trenches

Numbers of letters from those of our boys fighting in France contain the request that a small quantity of GOOD tea be sent them for their private supply.

In the dreary watches of the night, or as a "mug-up" between meals, there is nothing so invigorating as a cup of GOOD strong tea—especially when made from the famous

Old Home Tea

A package should be included in your boy's Christmas parcel. It's sure to be appreciated.

It is put up in air-tight lead packets—most suitable for mailing—and conforms strictly to the Military Postal regulations.

A Word to All Sufferers
 Red Island, Placentia Bay, October 17, 1916
 I had been a sufferer for 13 months from indigestion. I could not eat any kind of food, as I could not keep anything down. I took one pint bottle of Arctic Indigestion Cure, and now I am cured of all kinds of stomach trouble. A word to all sufferers: Don't be afraid to try this great cure, because it is the only cure for indigestion in the world.
