BRING SALMON UP BY HAND.

Interesting Process at Carleton Fish Pond.

How the Eggs are Secured and Subsequently Hatched Artificially for Re-stocking Streams.

Within the past few years the artificial culture of salmon in the maritime provinces has assumed proportions which entitle it to rank as a counting quantity in the commercial enterprise of this portion of the Dominion.

One of the most fruitful salmon ponds in New Brunswick is that situated in Carleton, from which millions of tiny salmon eggs are carried away yearly. At present the work of stripping the salmon in the Carleton pond is being done under the direction of Superintendent Mowatt of the maritime salmon hatcheries.

The salmon, of which there are more than a thousand in the pond, are captured in small numbers by means of a seine and imprisoned within an enclosure. From this the fish of the desired maturity are selected by means of scoops and by a simple operation deprived of their eggs.

Salmon are powerful fish and show a strong aversion to being handled by man. Therefore in the operation of stripping them of their eggs the greatest care must be observed to avoid hurting the fish, and in fact only skilled hands can be employed.

There is a way of handling salmon by which you can have them under perfect control, said Superintendent Mowatt to the reporter. "And the most things it can only be acquired by long practice. The man who works skilfully is going to have a hard time to hold his fish and will probably end with injuring the creature."

Salmon hatcheries exist at Gaspe and Masop, P. Q., Cape Breton, N. S., and in New Brunswick at Grand Falls, the Miramichi and the Restigouche. The hatchery is a long, low building, with hundreds of troughs, into which the eggs after being fecundated with the milt of the male are placed.

Superintendent Mowatt says that it is very interesting to watch the hatching of the eggs. It is known when the eggs have reached the embryo state by their peculiar vibratory motion. They then gradually assume the form of young salmon and for some time have to be carefully looked after until able to care for themselves.

Chinese Gov't. Looking For War—Russia Massing Troops and Ships Near China.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Specials from China give conflicting reports of China's attitude in the far eastern trouble. The correspondent of the Evening Post at Che Foo reports the further consolidation of Russian troops in Southern Manchuria is proceeding and expresses doubt as to whether Russia has a capacity for coaling, docking and maintaining the enormous fleet she is accumulating in Chinese waters.

IT MEANS ANNEXATION.

Panama Will Become Part of United States.

European Press Predicts Absorption by U. S., of North and South American Continents.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The morning papers print lengthy dispatches describing the situation on the isthmus of Panama, but few of them make editorial comment on the recognition of the new republic by the United States, which was regarded as a foregone conclusion.

The Morning Post says: Friction and trouble would inevitably have arisen had Colombia remained the owner of the isthmus, and doubtless it is in the interests of civilization that Panama should declare her independence under the shelter of American guise.

The Daily News does not believe that the United States added or abetted the revolution, but thinks it will mean virtual annexation. The paper says: "Thus the United States, after absorbing Spanish possessions in the Caribbean, will draw the sting nearer to the immense wealth of South America, which must one day fall under their control."

In a letter to the London papers, A. Aldana, Colombian consul at Cardiff, declares that the government of Colombia will not submit to the spoliation of other territory without struggling to the bitter end. The South American states, he says, will stand by Colombia, not only for sentimental reasons, but from the instinct of self-preservation.

ROME, Nov. 7.—The Tribuna commenting on the situation in Panama, says: "The United States aspires to the complete supremacy of the whole American continent. Under the usual way, it is not surprised if the Washington government has contributed its aid to the creation of the republic of Panama. The condition of things there is advantageous for the United States, and it is also favorable to the American idea of a protectorate over Colombia."

A FOOT OF SNOW.

That's What We Would Have Had if the Weather Today Had Been Cold.

St. John was visited by a snowstorm yesterday, about noon, which did not desert in its downfall until about noon today. Had the temperature been lower, in other words, had this been December or January instead of November, there would be excellent sleighing in the city today.

This is the heaviest snowstorm to occur at this early date since the fall of 1894, when the precipitation amounted to one inch, that is if it had lain in usual way, about ten inches may be cited as an instance. On the 22nd day of November, of that year, there was a heavy fall of snow which lasted for two or three days and the sleighs were brought out. The sleighs, however, had to be replaced with wagons in a few days.

The present snowstorm was accompanied by a northeast wind of twenty miles velocity. The temperature during the storm never fell below thirty degrees above zero. Today's forecast says that the wind is decreasing, and that the weather is becoming fair and colder.

The storm has extended all along the Atlantic coast.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN?

The freeman wondering today what would happen if a fire should break out in a district where live wires are plentiful. The ladies, wet as they would be, would soon become charged with and, in spite of the promises made by the council, there are only three pairs of rubber gloves in the possession of the whole department.

40,000 MEN STRIKE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—With Sam Parks in Sing Sing, President Frank Buchanan of the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers of America, and a persistent opponent heretofore of Parks, was captured yesterday by pure strike the country over on all contracts held by the Iron League of New York.

Forty thousand men in the building trades and 300 buildings under construction are affected by the strike order.

As might be expected, the present comparatively slight snowstorm has succeeded in delaying the trains. The C. P. R. was fifty minutes late today and the Boston express thirty-five minutes late.

BRAVE MEN REWARDED.

In Addition to City's Gifts St. John Lifeboat Crew Get Money From U. S. Government.

On the day following the violent storm in which the schooner Edna got into trouble off Miramichi, Consul Ira B. Myers wired the United States state department particulars of the rescue of the crew by a number of St. John men who went out in the lifeboat. Mr. Myers has received the following letter:

Department of State, Washington, Oct. 31st. Ira B. Myers, consul of the United States, St. John: Sir,—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch of the 19th inst., reporting the rescue of the captain and crew of the American schooner Edna on the 15th inst.

You are directed to pay to each of the nine men who comprised the rescuing party the sum of ten dollars. You will also express to these men the government's keen appreciation of their heroic services on the day named.

FRANCIS B. LOOMIS, Assistant Secretary.

In accordance with the instructions contained above, Mr. Myers today presented to each of the nine men the sum mentioned, at the same time conveying to them the thanks of the United States government.

The nine men who composed the crew were Fred G. Lahey, captain; Harry Speare, Edward Lahey, James Miller, James Murray, Edward Murray, Daniel McDermott, Thomas Collins and John Leary.

They have been notified to meet this afternoon at City Hall when the money voted by the common council will be presented. Along with it the freedom of the city will be conferred upon the men.

The sleuths from Canada said the charge was technical, and that the prisoner had robbed the company of many thousand dollars by means of dummy pay-rolls and a check system which he devised for paying employees at distant points on the line.
