CAMPAIN TO RECLAIM

UNCHURCHED PROTESTANTS

Evangelistic Mission on a Large Scale Has Been Started in New York.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The opening campaign for the saving of thousands of unchurched Protestants in the city, was inaugurated last night at a mass meeting held at the Metropolitan Opera House under the auspices of the Evangelistic Committee and attended by five thousand persons of all denominations. Several ministers took part in the exercises which marked the beginning of the fourth season of the Tent and Open Air Evangelistic Movement. Rev. Arthur F. Smith, superintendent of the committee outlined the plans for the coming campaign. It was proposed to erect twelve tents in the city during the summer. The tents will be put up in various parts of the city and one will be pitched in Wall Street.

TOO MUCH SLUMMING

BROUGHT ON HER DEATH

BOSTON, Mass., April 21.—The death at Waverley is announced of Miss Edith Elizabeth Marshall, a prominent figure in rescue work in the slums of great cities. Miss Marshall was a victim of her own enthusiastic endeavors, her death being caused by a breakdown due primarily to overwork. She was born in London in 1870, and when only sixteen years old began a career of missionary work, joining the Salvation Army under the direction of General Ballington Booth. Eight years ago she came to America and associated herself with Maude Ballington Booth. She raised funds and established the Welcome House and became its superintendant. Two years ago a branch house was opened in Dorchester known as the Girls' Industrial Home.

SIR HENRY CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN DIED IN LONDON THIS MORNING

The death of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman after a lingering illness of more than two months did not come as a surprise. Although the doctor's bulletins had not declared his condition critical, that fact was perfectly understood and the public had been expecting the announcement of his end at any hour during the next fortnight. The news came in the form of the following bulletin at 10.30 o'clock this morning:

"Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman passed away at 9.15 o'clock this morning. The cause of death was heart failure."

(Signed) R. W. Burnett."

In the death chamber where the ex-Premier breathed his last, were his niece, Mrs. Campbell, who had acted as Sir Henry's hostess since the death of Lady Campbell-Bannerman, a little more than a year ago, Dr. Burnett who was Mr. Campbell-Bannerman's personal physician and who had been in constant attendance during his long illness and Sir Henry's butler. The ex-Premier had been unconscious most of the time during the last two or three days and his sinking was gradual. A few hours before his death telegrams were despatched to King Edward who with Queen Alexandra is visiting the Danish Royal family at Copenhagen, the Prince of Wales and the Cabinet Ministers. Immediately newspaper reporters were keeping vigil before the house of the dying statesman, but the only news handed to them was in the form of a bulletin more than an hour after his death. A few minutes thereafter a crowd assembled in Downing street, but all persons were barred from approaching the house by a cordon of police from Scotland Yard.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's final illness dates from February 13, when he last appeared in the House of Commons and moved the closure of the Scottish Land Bill, although he had been ailing since November 13, 1931, when he participated at an entertainment in the Whitehall. On November 14, after addressing a political meeting at Bristol, he was seriously stricken with heart weakness, and later influenza was added to his heart trouble, bringing on his fatal ailment. The premier fully appreciated his condition and realized that his recovery was impossible. He offered to give up office some time before he formally resigned early this month. Few invalids have been the object of so much solicitude and attention as was bestowed upon Sir Henry, there having been a constant stream of callers at his Downing street residence, including King Edward, who visited him on two occasions, Queen Alexandra, the Dowager Empress of Russia, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and many prominent men in public life.

It is known that the ex-premier was opposed to a public funeral and it is believed that he will be buried without ostentation beside the body of the late Lord Roberts at the cemetery of St. Margaret's in Perthshire, Scotland. David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, on receiving the news of Sir Henry's death, said: "I never met a great public figure since I have been in politics who won so much of the affection and attachment of men who came in contact with him."

EIGHT EXECUTED FOR TRYING TO KILL CABRERA

The Would-be Assassins Were Students Composing a Guard of Honor.

MEXICO CITY, April 22.—The shooting at Guatemala City during which President Estrada Cabrera was wounded, was done by cadets of the Polytechnic Institute according to advisers received here yesterday. The cadets were selected to act as guards of honor during the return of the new American Minister, Major William Holmeke and opened fire as the President entered the palace. The cadets from Guatemala state that several members of the presidential party were wounded, one of two fatally. The president himself received several wounds, none of them serious. The dispatch states that eight cadets were executed immediately after the shooting.

CHICAGO, April 22.—The saloons' forces were generally successful in the twenty or more towns and villages of Illinois which voted on the local option question yesterday. Definite figures are lacking in many places, but it is certain that not more than one hundred saloons were voted out of business, the larger communities almost without exception voting to retain their licensed dramshops.

ASSOCIATED PRESS HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Strong Resolution Adopted Against the Methods of the Paper Combine.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The annual meeting of the Associated Press was held at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel today, with an exceptionally large attendance of members from every section of the country. Aside from the transaction of purely routine business affecting the organization, the most important action taken was the presentation and adoption of an address asking the President and the Congress to "grant immediate relief from the exactions of combinations of paper-makers."

The address presented was as follows:

Representatives of 774 daily newspapers gathered at the annual meeting of the Associated Press, respectfully ask the President and Congress to grant immediate relief from the exactions of combinations of paper makers. In 1907, the attention of the authorities was directed to the excessive prices then demanded by the paper combine, and to carry over to another session of Congress every proposition designed for relief. All newspapers here represented use approximately eighty per cent. of the news print paper consumed in the United States. We denounce the tactics of the paper combine as a gross violation of the public interest and as a gross violation of the public interest.

The choice of directors resulted in the re-election of the following:

Chas. H. Grasty, Baltimore Evening News; W. R. Nelson, Kansas City Star; Philadelphia Bulletin; George Thompson, St. Paul Dispatch; and Adolph S. Ochs, New York Times.

No changes in the present rules and regulations of the service were made.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR HOULTON MURDERER

HOULTON MURDERER

HOULTON, Me., April 21.—A sentence of life imprisonment, in the State Prison, was imposed in the superior court today on John Robson, alias Jack Roberts, who at the September term of court at his second trial on the charge of the murder of J. Edgar Dickinson, the Smyrna Mills farmer. Dickinson was shot through the head early on the morning of October 18, 1906, while standing alone in his kitchen. The first trial resulted in a verdict of guilty, but the jury was unable to reach a verdict on the second trial. The state was successful in its prosecution. Counsel for Roberts appealed on exceptions to a ruling of the presiding judge, but the appeal was dismissed from the law court for want of prosecution, the respondent having decided to take his sentence.

LAIVIS ENTERTAINMENT FOR U. S. SEAMEN

FOR U. S. SEAMEN

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 21.—Los Angeles today conducted a day of entertainment for the sailors and officers of the American battleship fleet. Thirty-five hundred blue-jackets were entertained at the various points where the four divisions of the fleet are anchored and they enjoyed the entertainment to the hilt. The sailors again were the guests of the city and the features of the day's entertainment, the same as on yesterday—boxing bouts, barbecues, wild west shows, and other forms of amusement, occupying the time from early morning until late at night. The sailors are really the most interesting feature of the fleet's stay at Los Angeles. Thousands of persons go each day to Chutes Park and Agricultural Park to see the men at play.

For the officers there were a number of social events, including a luncheon to the higher officers by Edna R. Chaffee.

HE KNEW NOTHING OF THE MULLINS MURDER

THE MULLINS MURDER

ARLINGTON, Mass., April 21.—Benedict Shanahan, the member of the crew of the fishing schooner Mary and Ellen, who was taken into custody by the Arlington police upon the arrival of the vessel in Boston yesterday, under suspicion of knowing something about the death of Annie Mullins a month ago, was released after examination by the police today.

Shanahan's alibi was examined by the police and his movements on the night of the alleged murder were accounted for.

The investigation and release of Shanahan marks the removal of some half a dozen similar cases which the Arlington police have concerned themselves with since the body of Annie Mullins, who was shot to death, was found in Marlboro Field on March 27. The police are apparently no nearer a solution of the mystery.

KING EDWARD WILL TRY TO WEAKEN THE GERMAN INFLUENCE

His Majesty Leaves on a Visit to the Northern Kingdoms.

LONDON, April 21.—King Edward, Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria left London yesterday in a snow-storm to pay a two weeks visit to the courts of Denmark, Sweden and Norway. When the royal carriages emerged from Buckingham Palace an icy gale was blowing and the air was full of swiftly driving snow. Their Majesty's coachman urged the horses to a fast trot, which was not slackened until reign was drawn at the Victoria station. The royal party travelled to Dover by special train intending to brave rough channel trip and reach Copenhagen early tomorrow morning.

The visit includes the three Scandinavian capitals, because the King's purpose is to relate to the whole body of people in the north-western corner of Europe. For some months the Swedish have felt that English friendship for them has considerably diminished. On the other hand frequent stories have reached London that the anti-Russianism of all sorts of rumors have prevailed as to negotiations affecting the Baltic and North Seas in which England has had no part and concerning which the government of this country is without definite knowledge. It was known that the Kaiser had no chance to make a good impression in the north-west and that he not only went personally to Scandinavia, but that he had kept in constant touch with the rulers of the three kingdoms and actively supervised his diplomatic representations at the capitals concerned.

British statesmen, while they had no objection to the best possible relations between the Scandinavian kingdoms and Germany, began to suspect that behind all this was some design to look into the matter of grounds and prepare a schedule. They will report to the executive on Saturday evening. Negotiations are now on for the lease of the Sharnbrook league and it is expected the league will have no trouble in securing them.

The death occurred in the General Public Hospital this morning of Mrs. Esther Green, wife of James Green. The late Mrs. Green was formerly Miss Esther Gooley and is a daughter of Mr. Gooley, confederate of North End. She lived in Beverly, Mass., and came here to take care of her father, who was in poor health. Besides her father, one son, a brother and sister survive. John Gooley, of Lynn, Mass., is the brother and Mrs. Trombly, of Boston, is the sister.

AMERICAN WARSHIP GOES TO VENEZUELA

Is Only to be Used in Messenger Service — Bubonic Plague Prevails.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—An American war vessel will be sent to Venezuela waters, but her mission is to be an entirely peaceful one. The closing of the port of Leguiera, because of the existence of a bubonic plague there, has made it necessary for the state department to have at hand some vessel to be dispatched to him from the State department. One of the smaller gunboats now in West Indian waters will be dispatched for this purpose. The vessel will be between Porto Cabello and the nearest cable station, Porto Cabello, according to Minister Russell in his dispatch to the State department today, is still open.

Under today's dispatch the State department regarding the situation at La Guaira, and expressing the general belief that the disease there is the plague. He says that the Venezuelan government officially announced today the existence of a suspicious contagious disease at La Guaira, the nature of which had not been determined. La Guaira has been quarantined for fifteen days, and no steamers are touching at the port, traffic being suspended on the railway. Porto Cabello, the Minister says, is still open.

SAW THEM LOSING, SWALLOWED POISON

Baseball "Fan" Throws His Fellow Rooters into a Panic at a Game.

With hundreds of rooters looking on last night, Frank Rusk, a well-known Des Moines baseball fan, swallowed carbolic acid and died in agony when he saw the Des Moines team losing to its game with Omaha Saturday afternoon.

It caused almost a panic and several women fainted. Rusk had been having domestic troubles of late and he was somewhat despondent over them. But he never missed a game. He was occupying a seat in one of the grand stands and was watching the game. The Des Moines team was not at its best, and when the shortstop missed an easy one Rusk was seen to clench his teeth. When the Omaha men ran in four scores Rusk gave a frenzied leap on to the diamond.

"I'm going to end this misery," he shrieked. Then he swallowed the acid and sank down on the ground writhing and twisting.

The crowd arose in horror, women screamed and fainted, while players rushed to where the man lay. He died before he could be removed from the grounds.

It was known throughout the city as an ardent baseball enthusiast. He was formerly a player himself.

It was several minutes before order was restored. Then the Des Moines team took a brace and tied the score, but later lost out by one run in twelve innings' contest.
