

Com. to Examine Circular Letter:—Rev T A Blackadar,
Rev W E McIntyre.

Adjourned to meet at eight p. m. Prayer by Rev. T A Blackadar.

SECOND SESSION.

Association opened its second session with a regular preaching service.

Rev J A Gordon read the Scriptures, and Rev P R Knight offered prayer.

Rev G O Gates, A M, of St John, preached an eloquent and exceedingly practical sermon, from Matt. xii: 12th, dwelling on the golden law of equity.

Minutes of previous session read and approved.

The reading of Church Letters then taken up.

Committee on Arrangements made a further report:—

"That the Wednesday morning session begin at 9 a m.

Business of Association taken up till ten; when the Associational sermon be preached by Rev T A Blackadar.

Session to close at twelve o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Rev C H Martell.

THIRD SESSION.

In the absence of the Moderator Bro. Hall opened the Association, and called upon Rev W H Beckwith to offer prayer.

The reading of Letters was then resumed and concluded.

Rev T A Blackadar preached the Associational sermon, Text, John xv, 4 and 5. Subject: "The Secret of Success;"
it was a masterly effort, and full of gospel truth. Rev. E M Saunders, D D, assisted in the service.

The committee on arrangements made a further report to the following effect:—"That the afternoon session open at two o'clock and close at five, time to be devoted to hearing and receiving reports.

Evening session to begin at half-past seven o'clock, when the reports on Home and Foreign Missions will be discussed.