men of the underworld are now in the tombs awaiting trial for the inhuman effence and are likely from the evidence so far adduced to face the penalty for their crime.

On Friday last Governor Lehman of New York signed the bill empowering juries to impose the death penalty in cases where the victim has not been returned alive at the time of the trial.

The report to Congress of the com man not been returned alive at the time of the trial.

The report to Congress of the committee appointed to propose measures for draims with kidnapping will shortly be presented. The committee is headed by Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York, a man of force and decision, and whose pictures in the daily press forecast what the kidnapper will meet when he is met. Hold-upc continue, but they are not increasing. Recently two men in Montreal were caught in the act and given seven years, with ten lashes. The lash is the most dreaded punishment and the most dreaded punishm

The Jobless Women In United States

Edmundston, N. B.

Darkened by Low Wages Paid.

Washington, Aug 31 — Women at New, for the century from 1870 town to the present era, are describing in somewhat sombre colors in a prochare issued today by the wonan's bursau of distribution at the Thicago Century of Progress.

Eleanor Nelson, of the public information division, author of the tesime, devotes chapters to low rages, the difficult fight for labor galation the hard lot of the negro comar worker, and the woman order of today.

"In 1870, less than 15 per cent of It woman 16 years of age and over ere breadwinners," the bulletin tys. "Today 25.3 per cent of such the companies of cases, at all times, that ling has been pittfully inadequate. "The littory of women in industry as been darkened by the low wages by have been paid. A hundred airs ago, it was estimated that women's wages in every branch of buness recraged less than 37% cents day, and at that time a day's work eraged 12 or more hours. Men's nings were about four times as used.

To 1932, the best available state

$11.72.
To show what "wages of today mean in the lives of working women the pamphlet cited a New York study showing $11.63 as the amount required for barest board and lodging. "leaving the average working fift but $212 a week for clothing, carfare, laurdry, recreation and all other expenses."

The number of jobless women today wa given as 2,000,000.
