Thursday, Feb. 5, 1914.
1867.—The O'Neill Weir, formerly featherweight champion of the world, born near Belfast, Ireland, who was educated for the priesthood, but abandoned the religious vocation to become a jockey. After a brief experience on the turf he entered an amateur boxing tournament in England, and his success determined him to take up pugilism as a profession. He whipped the best men of his weight in Great Britain and Ireland, and then came to America. His first victim on this side was Willie Shee of Boston. In 1887 he fought eighty rounds to a draw with Jack Havlin, and then went to Minneapolis, where he annexed the featherweight title by outclassing Tommy Warren. Weir lost his title in 1890 at San Francisco, where he was defeated by Australian Billy Murphy. He died at Somerville, Mass., about five years ago.
1887.—Jack Dempsey defeated Danny Kilian in 4 rounds at Philadelphia.
1903.—Jack Johnson defeated Denver Ed Martin in 30 rounds at Los Angeles.
1913.—Battling Nelson defeated Jack Sorenson in 10 rounds at Racine.

ENGLISH
FOOTBALL

Montreal, Feb. 4.—It is most likely the English Association football cup finalists will make a tour of Canada during the summer of next year, according to advices received here. Preliminary arrangements are being made by Con Jones, the Vancouver lacrosse magnate, and F. J. Wall, secretary of the football association of England.

A side attraction talked of is an exhibition game at San Francisco.
POOL TOURNAMENT
Much interest is being manifested in the pool tournament which is being conducted by members of the I. L. and B. Society, and as several of those competing for the prize are pretty evenly matched in the game the "play-offs" each evening are keenly contested. There were twenty-seven who entered in the tournament, and each man plays twenty-five games. At present Daniel Morrison is in the lead with J. R. McCloskey following closely in second place. The closing games promise to be very interesting.

Joe Tinker

Tinker's desertion of the National League has given the Brooklyn fans a big setback. With the Superba, infield of Danbert, Cuthbert, Tinker and Smith, where would there be another like it in the old league?

No doubt Joe's willingness to leave organized baseball was increased by his desire to live in Chicago, where he has business interests, and Brooklyn's refusal to sell or trade him back to the Cubs left this as the only means of playing ball at home. His salary is said to be $35,000 for a three-year contract, guaranteed by a bonding company.

The teams:
Toronto: Goal, Holmes; point, Marshall; cover point, Cameron; centre, Perison; left wing, Walker; right wing, Davidson.

ST. JOHN WANTS ARENA:
COST OF LAND VERY HIGH

About thirty persons with hockey at heart met last evening in the Board of Trade rooms to discuss the advisability of building an arena in the city, where it could not only be used for hockey, and other ice sports during the winter, but during the summer months could be used for many other functions.

E. J. Mooney, the president of the Hockey Association, presided and the talk among those present was more on the line of "what should be done in the city in the manner of providing a building where large crowds could be comfortably accommodated hockey could be played with success."

There was quite a debate as to whether a building could be built of wood or brick and the debate finally came to an end when it was shown that a site could hardly be procured in the heart of the city without a very large outlay of money. It was shown that to have an arena built for the purpose would cost about $250,000.

It was finally decided by those present that an architect be consulted on the probable cost of the erection of such a building, and to make plans of such a building.

It was shown by some of the speakers that the cost of land in the heart of the city was so high that it would be almost impossible to pay the figure to procure such site to erect an arena on it. The meeting adjourned to the call of the chairman and at the next meeting something more definite will be decided on.

The Sydney Record of Tuesday prints the following despatch from Glace Bay, how Mickey McIntyre was caught napping:

The twelve round bout between Joe McIntyre and Jas. Reapman was a slashing affair from start to finish and at the end of the bout referee John C. McKenzie declared the bout a draw, although many were of the opinion that Reapman should have got the decision as he was the aggressor all through showed much more cleverness, and although outweighed by his opponent by about thirty pounds succeeded in putting McIntyre down in the fifth round for the only knockdown of the fight. However, McIntyre's wallop on the whole had more steam behind them and consequently were more effective and on these grounds Reapman showed up wonderfully well against his much heavier opponent, he is a fighter from the word "go," and made many friends by his cleverness.

A preliminary three round bout was fought between Mickey McIntyre and Martin of New York, who gained a decision over "Young" Plover at Waterford about two weeks ago. McIntyre was in no condition, but being under the impression that it was to be a friendly exhibition, went on and fought. In ordinary street clothes, no sooner had the bout begun when Martin showed he wanted to do Mickey up and came at him like a woodchopper. This came as a surprise to Mickey, who was not prepared for such tactics, especially from a man who has the advantage in height and reach, outweighing him by about twenty-five pounds, and was in perfect condition. McIntyre went down in the second round, but it was entirely due to his foot slipping, as he only wore ordinary street shoes. Little is known of this Martin, who, it is said, hails from New York, and it is the general opinion of many of the fight fans that he is a dark horse brought down for the sole purpose of beating Mickey. Mickey feels bad over the affair and stated to the Record scribe this morning that he is declining an offer received from Mike "Twist" Sullivan yesterday for a fifteen round bout here for the sole purpose of getting back at Martin, and said Mickey, "If I don't beat that man Martin when we meet again I'll never put on another glove." It is likely that a bout between these two will take place soon.

The announcement was made by an Australian promoter, after a long talk with Ritchie and his manager today. No articles have been signed but it is stated that Ritchie's promise has been given and the details are to be settled later.

Two of the bouts probably will be with Hughie McNeegan, who was light weight champion of the Antipodes until Young Sailor Indianapolis knocked him out last week and with Herb McCoy, an Australian light weight, who won from Matt Wells of England, two weeks ago in seventeen rounds.

All the bouts will be for twenty rounds.

Lefty Aitchison

Another player to flirt with the Federals is Lefty Aitchison of Newark, in the International League and its leading pitcher last season. He was sold to Brooklyn in August, but refused to play there for a minor league salary and went home to Kansas.

Among others of the Newark team who have received offers from the Federals are Zimmerman, Getz, Dalton, Swacina and Wyatt Lee. It might be a wise thing for players like Tinker, Brown and Knabe, who would last only two or three more years, to sign a contract for big money with the outlaw league, but players like Aitchison, who with his major league days in front of him, should take two thinks, at least.
