MANY KILLED

SEVEN GERMAN AIRPLANES DROP JAMBURG IS BOMBS ON ENGLISH METROPOLIS

Houses in Southwestern and Northwestern District Demolished-More Than Dozen Killed and Nearly Half a Hundred Persons Injured—Seven Airships in Raid-Brilliant Display of Aurora Borealis Aided Invaders—An Heroic Clergy-THE LOSS OF THE London, Mar. 8.—Seven or eight German airplanes made a raid over England last night. One dropped bombs in the northwest and southwest districts of the city. Another dropped bombs in the northern district of London, demolishing several houses. The following statement was made officially:

An official report says:

"Last night's air raid appears to have been carried out by seven or eight enemy airplanes, of which two reached London. The first two raiders approached the Isle of Thanet at about 10.55 p.m., and proceeded up the Thannes estuary. Both were turned back before reaching London.

Meanwhile the third raider came across the Essex coast at 11.20 p.m. and sieered west. At 11.45 p.m. it was reported over East London. A few minutes later, it dropped bombs on the southwestern and northwestern districts, At 11.50 p. m, the fourth raider which had also come in across Essex dropped bombs to the north of London, and then proceeded south across the capital, dropping its remaining bombs on the northern district between 12.20 and 12.30 a. m. The remaining enemy machines, all of which came across the Essex coast, were turned back before they reached London, how the work of the country rained to their mother. Gertrude Matilda Belyea. Urban J. Swaeney is proctor.

In the matter of the estate of Riching and William A. J. Fitzgerald, the executors. John A. Barry is proctor.

The will to find the police were last the process of conditions under which the air raiders to the brightness by contrast the brightness by contrast towards France and English Channel grew what seemed to be pitch dark.

The matter of the estate of Riching and William A. J. Fitzgerald, the executors. John A. Barry is proctor.

The will to fit the process of the country granted to Beatrice Frice, the executors. John A. Barry is proctor.

The will to Mrs. Grisilda J. Price, widow, the will has been proved in the matter of the estate of Mrs. Annie of the executive. S. W. Palmer is proctor. In the matter of the estate of Mrs. Annie Johnston, fate of London,

The will of Mrs. Grisilda J. Price, widow, the will has been proyed in common form, and letters testament ary granted to Beatrice Price, the executrix. S. W. Palmer is protect. In the matter of the estate of Mrs. Grisilda J. Price, widow, the will has been proyed in common form, and letters testament ary granted to Beatrice Price, the executrix. S. W. Palmer is protect. In the matter of the estate of Mrs. In the matter of the estate of Mrs. In the matter of the estate of Mrs. The house of a vicar was partially wrecked, but the clergyman escaped. He is a special constable and had left home for duty when the warning came a few minutes before he explosion which damaged his residence. The vicar worked throughout the night, as sisting the warned and hometess neighbors.

A later official report reads: "The latest police reports state that eleven were killed and forty-six injured in last night's air raid. It is feared that in addition to the above six bodies are still buried in the morthwestern section. The greatest damage in London. The greatest damage in London was inflicted in the northwestern section. The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and block crashle. The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and block crashle. The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and block crashle. The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and block crashle. The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and block crashle. The matter of Helei Hammond, the accounts have been passed and an order to find the morthwestern section.

The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and block crashle. The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and block crashle. The first bomb made a square hit on a three-story dwelling of concrete and the country and first price, the executive. The estate of London. March 8.—Ensign N. V. Krylenko Quits.

In the matter

Kiev Still Held by Bolsheviki

London, March 8.—A Rusian revo-lutionary army recaptured Jamburg, sixty-eight miles from Petrograd on March 5, according to an official an-nouncement made in Petrograd on Thursday and forwarded by the cor-respondent of the Exchange Tele-graph Company.

Holding Klev.

London, March 7.—Kiev, the capital of the Ukraine, is still in the hands of Russian revolutionary troops and has not been occupied by the Germans, according to a statement issued by the Russian official news agency in Petrograd.

Kalser's Son King?

London, March 8—The Finnish government has asked the German emperor to appoint Prince Oscar, the fifth son of the emperor, King of Finland, says the Afton Tidningen of Stockholm. The paper says it has learned this information from diplomatic fireles there.

Krylenko Quits.

NEW YORK WON'T HAVE DOCK STRIKE

Walkout of Sixty Thousand Men Believed to Have Been

New York, March 8.—The threatened strike of 60,000 mien employed on boats in New York harbor, members of the Marine Workers Affiliation, which was to have been begun tomorrow, is believed to have been averted.

GIRL IS BRIDE OF A GRANDFATHER

Seventeen Year Old School Miss Wife of Man 55 Years

New York, March 8.—The threatened strike of 60,000 mien employed on boats in New York harbor, members of the Marine Workers Affiliation, which was to have been begun to morrow, is believed to have been averted.

W. B. Squires, acting secretary of the United States board of arbitration, today summoned many of the boat owners into confidence and the workers decided to await the result.
According to the men, the federal arbitration board arranged a scheduler workers decided to await the result.
He has two married daughters, two in this port and the employers disregarded it.

Too Little of Scripture Study and Too Much of Disloyalty in Their Propoganda.

BRIT

THE SAL

Were It Not

tine Woul

Whole of

by Germa

trol Balka

Indigestion (

of wind, nause food for the mis can't cure-the

the blood and t

through the blo

then the nerves indigestion mes

you will be grat

Mr. Daniel Dexter, ays: "For years I disagreeable sensation frequency troubled vomiting which we appetite almost comp what I did eat caus pain. I was continus did not get any benef did not get any bene made up my mind the for life. One day a why I did not try D Pills, and while I as of a cure I decided only taken a few boxt I found the were he gladly then I continupills, and in less that was as well as ever I eat a hearty meal, an was again worth lift been troubled from tattacks of rheumatis the pills cured this edigestion. It is now I took the pills, and in had no return of the dies, but begin l ands of cases, a

There a

Cutting Down Your Clothes Expense Means Ordering

English & Scotch Wooller

26-28 Charlotte Street,

GREAT TAILOR SHOPS IN CANADA

Made-To-Measure Garments MOST successful businesses nowadays are managed on the budget system; that is, their costs of doing business are planned in advance, in accordance to their estimated income. You can apply the same system to cut down your own clothes expense by ordering English & Scotch Woollen Co.'s Made-to-Measure garments. We have maintained our high standard of fabric quality in spite of steadily rising costs of woollens, by having large, long-time contracts with the mills. We believe we are upholding and strengthening the call for economy in maintaining our standard of quality fabrics at the same old price, $15. for a strictly Made-to-Measure Suit or Suit Or Overcoat Made-To-Your-Measure "The Same Good Quality as Last Year, at the Same Old Price." TN spite of the war, the weavers of England, land and Ireland are supplying us with woo goods;—the contracts for these woollens were placed hearly two years ago. Therefore, all the Suits a Overcoats we make this season are worth more great deal more than the price you pay. If you will consider the present value of goods in today's market, you will understand that we are giving you the most remarkable values ever offered in Men's Garn Better look at these fabrics of unusual worth; better order today.

Waterloo, Ontario