Industry-The Basis of All Wealth

WITHOUT industry neither Victory Bonds nor any government or municipal security would have value.

The products of industry create, sustain and wealth, making good the principal and inthonds and securities of every description.

But, industry must come first. It is the main-spring of national life. It must go on and it must prosper. Therefore, industrial bondholders are the world's fundamental creditors.

These truths are not always recognized, but they are
