The owners of the schooner Edward W. Perry have brought suit for damages against the owners of the steamship Devonian for injuries received in a collision with the steamship off Buoy 9.

New York, May 10.—The Jonesport, Me., three-masted schooner A. R. Keene, Capfain Chas. Keene, which sailed from Barbados Feb. 19 and Zaza (Cuba) April 13, with a cargo of mahogany for New York, ran ashore early this morning during a fognear Point Lookout, B. I. An attempt was made by the Point Lookout ife saving station to rescue the schooner's crew by shooting a line to the vessel. The crew abandoned their effort to come ashore with the aid of the life savers and launched their dory. The strong tide carried the little vessel to sea in spite of the efforts of the men to row ashore. Captain Rhodes, of the Point Lookout life saving station, went after them in a surf boat.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED a REMEDY, to denote which; he coined the word CHLO-RODYNE. Power cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination) and since his formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.
