

- Quebec Province, separate representation in France, 9, 17; results of application of Conscription Act, 197-98; international influence to be wielded through Laurier, 247; publication of dissenting opinions in Judicial Committee of Privy Council, 272; fisheries regulations, 470-71; restrictions on export of pulp wood, 766-68, 788—see also Gouin, Sir Lomer; Labrador boundary dispute
- Queen Charlotte Islands, 402, 404, 413
- Queensland, Asian settlers, 643
- Quigley, Edward T., Department of Commerce (US), 499
- R
- Rahim, H., 615, 650
- railways, 69, 92, 840, 844-45—see also Alberta Railway and Irrigation Co.; Canadian Northern; Canadian Pacific; Grand Trunk; Grand Trunk Pacific; National Transcontinental
- Railways and Canals, Department of, 19, 269; Minister of, 99-100, 775_n—see also Graham, G. P., 1907-11, Cochrane, Francis, 1911-17
- Rainbow, HMCS, 40, 247_n, 650-51
- Rainy River, 419
- Ram, Nathu, 610
- Ramsay, Malcolm, Treasury (UK), 102
- raw materials, Imperial policy for post-war control of, 286-87, 322, 328-30
- Raynaud, M., 481—see also France, Consul, Montreal
- Reading, Earl of, High Commissioner for Finance in US and Canada, Sept.-Nov. 1917, 179; British Ambassador, Washington, Jan. 1918-Aug. 1919, relations with Canadian War Mission, 32-34; military service convention, 191, 193, 200; fisheries regulations, 505-7
- Reciprocity Act (US), 1911, 798_n
- reciprocity agreement, Canada-US: Canadian initiatives in 1896 and later bring negative results, Canada will not take initiative again, 758-59, 787, 797; resumption of talks suggested by Taft, 771; preparations for negotiations, debate on procedures, timetable and status of negotiators, 775-86, 788; preliminary discussions, Ottawa, 783, 785-88; concurrent legislation vs. formal trade treaty, 786; Washington phase of negotiations, 787-90; agreed provisions of reciprocity arrangement, 790, 792-94; modification of vexatious customs regulations, 789-95; procedures for implementing arrangement, 791, 794; formal exchange of letters, 792-95; relationship to US policy of freer interchange with countries of western hemisphere, 796; not prejudicial to British interests, 790, 796-97; bearing on Bahamas trade in case of union with Canada, 686, 688-89; approval by US. Senate, 798—see also US, Tariff Act
- recruiting conventions—see military service conventions
- Redfield, William C., Secretary of Commerce (US), 499, 502, 504
- Regina, 155
- Reid, Sir George, Australian High Commissioner, London, 46, 46_n
- Reid, John Dowsley, Minister of Customs, 1911-17, 698
- Reid, John McIntosh, 698
- Reid, Malcolm R. J., Dominion Immigration Agent, Vancouver, 647, 647_n
- Reid, Whitelaw, US Ambassador, London, alleged acceptance of Canadian claims in Hecate Strait, 402, 412, 414, 418-19; denial, 418-19
- requisitioning of ships by Admiralty, Canadian complaints of shipping shortages, 65, 67, 74, 78, 89, 92-93, 102, 105-7, 116-17; defence of Admiralty policy, 67, 78, 109, 114, 116-18; Canada to give advance notice of requirements, 78, 110; Canadian complaints of non-consultation, 113-16, 118, 145-47, 152, 199-200, 200_n; provision of vessels for Canadian use, 67, 92-94, 105, 108-10; requisitioning of ships built in Canada, 136, 151; formal demands for consultation and British reply, 150-51, 153; constitutional rights of Canada, 158-59; Canadian representation on requisitioning body discussed, 113-16, 118, 152; future procedures, 163, 163_n, 167; transfers of registry to be controlled, 163, 166-67, 169—see also Canada, national status; Dominions, the war, control of shipping; shipping
- Revenue Act (US), 141_n