A SKATING SONG. On long, long nights of winter, Upon our inland seas, Our flashing skate steel rivals The swiftness of the breeze Once more our course to venture On the rapid gliding heel, And proudly sweep o'er the icy deep, With many a curve and wheel. Hurrah for the flashing, forward dashing, Clearly ringing steel.

We need no gas nor parlor, Stars for our lamp suffice Our canopy is the Heaven blue, Bent round the glassy ice Hurrah for the brave old Norsemen Hurrah for the steel shod heel! ()'er the deep we skim, till the shores grew dim,

Then a homeward course we wheel Hurrah for the flashing, forward dashing, Clearly ringing steel !

Steel for the sturdy warrior, Steel for the editor's pen, The pioneer's axe in the forest The plow share in the glen. But hurrah for the steel of the skaters ; Hurrah for the joy we feel! When our skates are glancing, like a vessel dancing.

With a wave dividing keel! Hurrah for the flashing forward dashing, Clearly ringing steel

I RISE TO SEEK THE LIGHT. I saw a little blade of grass, Just peeping from the sod, And asked it why it sought to pass, Beyond its parent clod? It seemed to raise its timid head, All sparkling fresh and bright, And wondering at the question, said, I rise to seek the light."

I asked the eagle why its wing To ceaselees flight was given As if he spurned each earthly thing And knew no home but heaven He answered as he fixed his gaze Undazzled at the sight. Upon the sun's meridian blaze, 'I rise to seek the light.'

I asked my soul what means this thirst, For something yet beyond, What means this eagerness to burst, From every earthly bond ? It answered, and I felt the glow. With fires, more warm, more bright All is too dull, too dark below-I rise to seek the LIGHT."

REST IN HEAVEN. Not in this dreary world of ours Can perfect rest be found, Thorns mingle with its fairest flowers. Even on cultured ground. A brook-to drink of by the way. A rock-its shade to cast. May cheer our path from day to day, But such not long can last. Earth's pilgrim still his loins must gird To seek a lot more blest; And this must be his onward word-'In heaven alone is rest.'

This cannot be our resting place, Though now and then a gleem Of lovely nature, heavenly grace, May on it briefly beam; Grief's pelting shower, cares darkning shroud Still falls, or hovers near; And sins pollutions often shroud The light of life, while here. In which it lies depressed, Can the pure spirit cease from toil 'In heaven alone is rest."

Rest to the weary anxious soul, That on life's toilsome road Bears onward to the destined goal Its heavy galling load; Rest unto eyes that often weer Beneath the day's broad light, Or oftener painful vigils keep Through the dark hours of night. But let us bear with pain and care As ills to be redressed. Relying on the promise fair-

In heaven there will be rest NON RESISTANCE. Perhaps too far in these considerate days Has patience carried her submissive ways; Wisdom has taught us to be calm and meel To take one blow and turn the other check It is not written what a man shall do. If the rude caitiff strike the other too!
