John and Alex. Stewart of Qu'Appelle, Sask., called off to visit W. S. Currie, on their way to Montana. Mr. Currie explained the condition of the grading and earth dumped on North Railway St., by saying it was the grading for the new city railway. Now the Stewarts are looking for shares as they think a railway would be a good proposition here.

The Alberta Realty and Brokerage Co. have opened a suite of offices over Desbriens' store. The inside is nicely fitted up with a waiting room and inside office. The woodwork is neatly stained, the light excellent and the location could not be improved upon. The most conspicuous ornaments on the walls are the life-like Benough and Benson. They speak for themselves.

Sgt. Spalding of the N.W.M.P. has gone to Regina to prepare himself for promotion. Should his absence be permanent, many friends he has made in this city during his short stay will regret it.

Miss Marie Jackson and D. S. Stewart of the International Entertainers will give some music at the Presbyterian church on Sunday. Miss Jackson will sing to a violin obligato played by Mr. Stewart.

The sixth ring of the stand-pipe is in place. The men have worked pretty steadily lately as the weather has not been so severe.

Lethbridge Herald—The engagement is announced of Miss Nellie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kahan, collector of customs, to Mr. T. H. Navin of Medicine Hat. The marriage will take place in St. Patrick's church, Jan. 8th.

The International Entertainers appear here on January 7th and will present a first class programme with five high class artists. Homer Eaton the impersonator is known through the west. D. S. Stewart the violinist is sure to please his hearers. Will McLeod is so funny that it is a relief when he stops. The Misses Jackson are star performers, one a soprano soloist, the other a pianist. Everybody should hear them.

One of Mack Higdon's horses is a circus performer. It ran away on Saturday, throw out two men who were driving and turned across the railway bridge. It ran across at a fast trot without a stumble, took another circuit further on, ran right up the track to the top of the hill, pushed through a barbed wire fence, and came out with only a little scratch on the cutter. It was only the thoughts of Calgary ahead that made it leave the tracks and take to the tail grass.

Samuel Spencer of the Milk river ranch was in Lethbridge on Monday.

Mrs. Ross of McLeod is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neff.

District deputy grand Smyth of the grand lodge of Alberta opened the new Masonic hall in Frank and installed the new officers. Dr. Smyth made a very eloquent address according to the Frank paper.
