ALGOMA.

This month will be an eventful one in the history of Algoma. Its second Bishop, Dr. Sullivan has resigned and a new Bishop will be elected at the meeting of the Provincial Synod to be held in Montreal November 11th. During the fourteen years that Dr. Sullivan has presided over Algoma he has worked extremely hard in her cause and done a great deal for the Diocese. The W.A. has much to be grateful to him for also. as many a time he has been our spokesman on the floor of the House of Bishops and ever taken a keen interest in our work. We would ask to be allowed to wish him every success and happiness in his new position as Rector of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto. Then comes the question of his successor. Let it be one of our first petitions that the Holy Spirit will guide the Synod to a wise choice and when chosen, let us seek to help the new Bishop with our most earnest prayers on his behalf. We are glad to think that Mrs. Sullivan will still be one of us.

SELKIRK.

The following is from Mrs. Canham, whose very name bespeaks our interest. "I am sure the W.A. will feel a little interested in hearing a few details of our life in the North, from one who has been there for the last ten years and who hopes, if spared, to return to her distant home next year. We hear a great deal about the hardships and privations endured by Missionaries, but we must speak and write more about the mercies and blessings received from day to day and the wonderful love and care that is shown for us by our Heavenly Father. It is very striking the way in which our wants are supplied. We have often been brought low in the way of provisions, yet never have been quite with-
