

which shall, as shall also, Cliff Island, Margaret Island, and Two Heads Island, and the whole of the navigable waters of the River St. Lawrence for one league below and one league above the said Grosse Island, and all persons who may be within the said limits, shall be subject to the Law Martial as in force in His Majesty's Navy and Army, and be under the orders of such Naval and Military Commander as the Governor and Commander in Chief for the time being may appoint.

XXIX. And that the place at which the Vessels shall anchor, shall be as near as possible to Grosse Isle, and shall be marked out by Bouys, which shall be laid down under the direction of the Superintendent of Pilots, and every Vessel arriving from Sea shall come to anchor at the said anchorage ground, and shall remain there until she shall have been visited by, and shall have obtained leave to proceed on her Voyage, from the Medical Officer, and from the Commandant of Grosse Isle aforesaid; and every Vessel passing Grosse Isle without such leave as aforesaid, shall be compelled to return there.

XXX. And that there shall be erected upon Grosse Isle and upon Cliff Island, or upon one or the other of the said Islands, in such a position as to command the Anchorage Ground, one or more Block Houses, with such Hospital for the sick, and such lodging and sheds for the healthy as shall be deemed necessary.

XXXI. And that there shall be placed in the said Block Houses a sufficient Military force, a Physician and Physician assistant, and a visiting Officer, and also linen and bedding, drugs and other articles necessary for the use of Hospitals and Infirmaries.

XXXII. And that permission shall be given to sufficient number of Victuallers to establish themselves at Grosse Isle, and to sell provisions there, at a price to be fixed, and under all such regulations as shall be made with regard to them by