

Cawthra's Cooper connects

Mark Cooper romped in to flick the ball past the Hamilton goalie three times as Cawthra beat Hamilton 6-1 in a bantam B Central Mississauga Lacrosse Association contest.

Copper's heroics were the best of a series of good performances. Peter Detwiler, Bib Poier and Daryl Clancy found the range with other blistering scoring drives.

NOVICE
Like Cooper, Jeff Smith of Cawthra fired the hat trick to spark a victory. The count was a much closer 4-3 win, however against St. Catharines. The winning margin for Cawthra came with Steven Norheim's score.

TYKE
Joey Pickford was the third Cawthra scorer to blast

a hat trick for his team but his effort was less successful as he scored all the goals in a 6-3 loss to Hamilton.

Erindale celebrated the opening night of Minor Lacrosse Week in Mississauga by padding Malton 8-0. David Buda blasted three winners and Tommy Toth added two more. David Drury, Kenny Guglick and Scotty Graham posted singles. David Paradi was strong in goal, earning his first shutout of the season.

Paradi also fielded loose balls aggressively earning an assist on one particularly good play.

Clarkson bombed Kitchener 14-3 at Kitchener as Mike Lafontaine whipped in five goals, four of them unassisted. The sharpshooter scored a legitimate hat trick in the third period with three consecutive goals in the space of five minutes and 45 seconds.

Clarkson bombed Kitchener 14-3 at Kitchener as Mike Lafontaine whipped in five goals, four of them unassisted. The sharpshooter scored a legitimate hat trick in the third period with three consecutive goals in the space of five minutes and 45 seconds.

Bob McCarthy also rifled four goals with Greg Waters putting a pair and Ted Poulton, David Vuk and Kevin Pennett netting singles. Vuk also had three assists.

PEEWEE A
Four goals in the first period and three in the second carried Clarkson to an 8-3 win over Brantford in an out-of-town game. Ronnie Vincent and Dave Pascutto shots pairs of scores for Clarkson. Single marksmen were Scott Green, Jeff Wilson, Cort Sanderson and Mike Pascutto.

Dixie hope dashed

Bramalea's Dianne Sibly was relieved to see Dixie's Linda Watson heading to the sin bin for a 10 minute rest late in the final frame during their Mississauga Girls Lacrosse League Intermediate clash.

Up until then, the two girls had been staging their own show by exchanging goals in a contest of scoring punch. Both had three tallies when Linda was sentenced to time in the sin bin. Dianne took advantage of the opportunity presented her by connecting for her fourth marker at the 14:17 mark of the closing period.

The crucial score gave Bramalea a 4-3 edge and that's the way it remained.

A well balanced attack powered Erindale past Clarkson 4-1.

Charlene McArthur continued to shine for Erindale as she was the only two goal performer.

Sherilyn Azlen and Stacey Boyd also connected for the winners while Sue Stubbington contributed a pair of assists.

Kathy Kinsella ruined Donna Heeney's bid for a shutout as the 31 seconds mark of the opening frame.

SENIOR
A timely goal by Kim Timmins at the 12:33 mark of the closing tilt enabled Erindale to tie Clarkson 2-2. The evenly matched affair featured standout goal-tending by Clarkson's Sue Wright and Erindale's Bev Case.

The penalty filled affair saw the teams battle to a 1-1 saw-off after one frame, go scoreless in the middle segment, and battle evenly again in the third.

Reliable Michelle Nichols fired the first Erindale goal while Clarkson goals came from the sticks of Andrea Lacey and Miriam Zylstra.

JUNIOR
A four goal outburst in the middle frame enabled Malton to coast to a 9-3 decision over Clarkson.

Again, Debbie Scriver and Sharon Beaudet combined to lead the way for the winners as they scored four and three goals respectively.

Kim Beaudet and Corrie Williams also connected for Malton.

Carrie McCarthy, Jane McCarthy, and Lyne Sillars provided the scoring punch for Clarkson.

Summer games baseball tourney

Clarkson Sheridan girls soccer team had only one goal scored on them in the entire Western Ontario Women's Summer Games tournament, but unfortunately for them, that goal game in the championship tilt which saw Oakville beat them 1-0.

The one day affair in Waterloo, Ontario took its toll on the weary Clarkson Sheridan squad as they played four games and won the first three by shutouts.

In the preliminary encounter, Mississauga blanked Guelph 2-0 with stingy Linda Richmond getting the first of her three shutouts.

Lise Catsburg scored on a penalty shot to put the game away for the winners after Sandra Reynolds had opened the scoring.

Waterloo fell victims to Clarkson Sheridan next as they bowed 4-0 to the Mississaugans.

Michele Letourneau led the assault with a pair while singles went to Sandra

Homers prevail
Hammerin' Hank Aaron would be proud of Steve Bunnell and Jim MacIntyre's prowess at swinging the bat had he taken in their performance at a Erindale Lions Association T-Ball encounter.

The two sluggers each cracked two crucial homers to spark Cubs to a narrow 26-24 verdict over Astros.

The win gives Cubs a share of first place with Expos. Brant Hobbin and Derek Allen smacked four baggers in Pirates 37-22 over Angels. Expos kept pace with Cubs by virtue of their 28-15 triumph over Giants.

Bruce Shoebottom led the batting parade with a devastating grand slam effort.

Giants hard luck continued as they were slapped 27-16 by Astros.

Goalies tough in ball hockey

The coming of summer brings out the stinginess in some people.

First loss

The Mississauga Crusaders first team lost their initial rugby match of the year over the weekend dropping a 6-3 decision to Toronto Welsh.

The Welsh team scored on two penalties while Stuart Cox kicked Mississauga's lone three-point effort.

Cox, along with Barry Finemore did get some more rugby in however, as they competed on a Niagara Select side against the touring Welsh team of Abercarn. The visitors won 15-12 but Finemore made his presence felt by scoring on a three-point drop goal.

The Crusaders play again this weekend.

Take the goalies in the Mississauga Ball Hockey Association for example. Four of six games ended in shutouts this week with one game featuring extraordinary reluctance on the part of the goalies to show any human failings as a scoreless tie was recorded.

Budget Rent-a-car and Abel Photo Finishers battled to the whitewashed draw as Peter MacLaren and Barry Grist shut the door on the shooters.

Bill Skinner recorded his first shutout of the season in a 1-0 victory for Currie Real Estate over Westdale Mall. Colin Ruttle blasted the only goal of the game after taking a pass from Harry Hurrelbrinck.

Canadian Wholesale Sports blanked Radio Shack 2-0 with Paul Coulter registering shutout number two of the season. Paul Hewitt and Terry Modesto fired the goals.

Ron Stevenson, Marco Guertin and Morgan Williams drilled winners when Westdale Mall stalled Budget 3-0. Dave Stevenson was flawless in the nets.

Abel Photo Finishers outscored Canadian Wholesale Sports 5-2 in a battle for first place. Craig Abel, Tim Plaxton, Joe Mancini, John Lindsay and Jim Stuart hit for the winners with Dr. Rick McKenzie and Terry Modesto accounting for all the Wholesale goals.

Currie Real Estate disrupted Radio Shack's signals with a 4-1 defeat. Steve Duncie delivered a pair of scores. Adding singles were Terry Stevenson and Mark Hollidge. Dave Hines replied for Radio Shack.

B's have eyes set on first

Ron Wannamaker feels that second place in the Central Ontario Junior B Standings is a nice place to visit, but he wouldn't want to stay there.

In fact, the awesome ruler of Mississauga Junior B PCO Athletics is determined that their stay in second spot will be a short one.

Under Wannamaker, Athletics have seven wins and one loss and front running Whitby B-R are struggling to keep pace with the charging Mississaugans. Like their Junior A brothers, Athletics overpower their opponents in the third.

"They seem to match the enemy for the first two periods and then come on in the third to win it," beams Wannamaker.

Scarborough Saints know precisely what Wannamaker means.

The two clubs battled on even terms for two periods Sunday and then Athletics ran away with remarkable ease.

Two goals each by Stew Aird and Bill Joyce and singles by Glen Rogers, Fred Moore, and Ronnie Smith furnished Athletics with a 7-5 first period lead.

The see-saw battle continued in the middle segment with Rick Halliday, Keith Wilson, Kim Crossman, Randy Filmore, and Stew Aird pulling the trigger for PCO's.

In the third period avalanche, Art Hainer started the explosion with an easy tally.

Crossman connected twice, once on a break-away and once on a screen shot during a powerplay to make it 15-11.

A solo effort by Hainer put PCO's up by five and Scott Aird added to that by muscling his way in for a well deserved goal.

Any attempt for a comeback was squelched by four rapid goals late in the period by Dave Taylor, Wayne Hebert, Smith, and Joyce.

B's next home game is Monday night at Clarkson Arena against Ajax Knights beginning at 8:30 p.m.
