

in the awful Indian mutiny of '57 which created so many heroes. I used to know him very well, & I proudly possess & wear a badge he gave me which he picked up in the streets of Delhi when he rescued that city. The life has just been published, & I'm sure you'd find it worth your while to read it. You'd be deeply impressed by the man, his character, great faith & supreme dauntless courage, & charming nature. — I don't know if I told you that I am spending two 11525

Silverdale. Aug. 12th 1909.

Dear Mr. King—

It was very nice hearing from you again - but, while I think of it, will you recall to give me my initials (T.G.) when you write while I am homeless, for to the Bankers I am not the only Miss M.!! Your letter finally reached me with a gratifying "try Miss T.G.M. or M."!
I am so glad you had that interesting Commencement-