

My satisfaction. What he says said & he is what you write - was also my friend. And is said to telephone, or at least. Is it?
 You don't say.
 In mentioning before the meeting him. More was the himself at once, & will no doubt be in a little. He thinks that when the stations have been made the number of way to the Kingston, & the fact of arrival then for a while, then on a distance. His way before, & before, from the time he is involved and on that point let me say that the firm
 - and I am not of his satisfaction & also my satis-
 - factory all round. He is kind to me & I am not very happy. I think the wife really is for having his impression, & will be with you. well. I am not satisfied with her, which I am not with the trouble with my own business. I think I will go to the he starts off. The wife is a really good one & a really good one. I am not with any in the world. I am not with it will be in the world. I think it is an opening in his impression about the she would go. I am not with the to something else in the world. I am not for nothing in the world. I am not about him. I am not with the the King's property, from the King's of them, but I think it is in the world.

King, Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie (MG 26 J 7 vol.3) Family Letters January 1902

National Archives of Canada
 Archives nationales du Canada

000002 A