

Continent of America in the most solemn manner not doubting the continuation of obedience which will ever be attended with a suitable reward at from me and to word ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> remove your fears of the enemy annoying by being bare and uncovered in the place of your habitation at Shackhook, I will build you a Stockade fit for your security and ~~will~~ <sup>will</sup> ~~short~~ you to keep together and not suffer People to struggle but endeavour to increase your number, By Persuading those those who have left to return to their ancient habitations. You see the great care Her Majesty has of this Province by sending so many people and the more numerous her subjects are the less you need fear the invasions of your enemy and let not the French or their Comissaries lull you asleep but be upon your guard for the security of your Wifs and children and go not too far a hunting but be ready on a <sup>likely</sup> occasion. There being several troops come from Great Britain to Boston by the last Fleet and new ships being expected we know not how soon there may be occasion of joining our Forces together

I hear that you have no more Sachins <sup>for the present</sup> ~~at~~ at Shackhook but one, I must recommend you to nominate to other fitt persons for that the Nation and I will confirm <sup>and ratify</sup> your choice provides the presents given to ~~the~~ the Indians
