

- (b) A set of standard Canadian coins—gold, silver and copper.
- (c) Canadian postage stamps of the current year.
- (d) Copies of the programme and cards of invitation for the ceremony of the re-laying of the corner stone, September First, 1916.
- (e) Copy of the 1916 Edition "The Canadian Parliamentary Guide".
- (f) A copy of "Construction", Volume II, No. 1, of November, 1908, containing an article by W. A. Langton, O.A.A., on Canada's National Buildings, a review of their construction, arrangement, and architectural detail, with a number of plates showing the main architectural features of the old Parliament Buildings.
- (g) Copies of the current issues of the Ottawa daily newspapers.
- (h) Annual report 1916 of "The Historic Landmarks Association of Canada".
- (i) Report of the Royal Commission appointed to investigate the origin of the disastrous fire of February 3, 1916.