

	PAGE
Special damage involves definite temporal loss	242
Imputation of criminal offence	243
Charges of mere immorality not actionable	244
Slander of Women Act	244
Imputation of contagious disease	245
Evil-speaking of a man in the way of his business	245
Words indirectly causing damage to a man in his business	247
2. Defamation in General.
Defamation	248
"Implied malice"	249
What is publication	251
Vicarious publication	252
Construction of words: Innuendo	253
Libellous tendency, not intention, the test: proof of tendency	253
Repetition and reports may be libellous	255
3. Exceptions.
Exceptions: fair comment	256
What is open to comment, matter of law	259
Whether comment is fair, matter of fact	260
Justification on ground of truth	261
Must be substantially complete	262
Mixed defence of justification and fair comment	262
Extent of justification	264
Defendant's belief immaterial	265
Parliamentary and judicial immunity	266
Other persons in judicial proceedings	267
Reports of officers, &c.	268
Qualified immunity of "privileged communications"	268
Conditions of the privilege	269
"Express malice"	270
What are privileged occasions	270
Moral or social duty	271
Self-protection	272
Information for public good	273
Fair reports	273
Parliamentary papers	274
Parliamentary debates and judicial proceedings	274
Volunteered reports	276
Excess of privilege	276
Honest belief is not necessarily reasonable belief	277
Power of jury in assessing damages	278
Statutory defences	279
Limits of interrogatories in action for libel	279
Bad reputation of plaintiff	280
Injunctions	280

Nature of t
Concurrent
Difficulties of Questions of Fraud of ag
General con

(a) F

M

K

(b) F

H

H

H

F

(c) L

R

L

(d) F

H

M

F

A

(e) L

H

M

L

F

Slander of Recent exte
Trade mark
Unfair

II

Malicious p

Malicious c

P.—T.