
Preston, W. W.
Pur-low, J. E.
Roolphe, Fred
Rowe, T. H. E.
Robinson, Geo. H.
Reilly, James
Rondon, Alfred
Robinson, George
Rearden, Joseph
Ross, Edward
Reid, J. D.
Ramsay, T. M.
Rhodes, F.
Rose, W. S.
Sutherland, H. P.
Seaman, J. C. S.
Scott, Corp. Guy

Shakes, E. Ballentine
Sworder, Norman
Sky, Sergt. G. E.
Sworder, Malcolm
Scott, Alexander
Sawyer, Darwin
Smallwood, William
Sheffield, Robert
Sopp, Ernest J.
Simpson, Thomas
Smith, Alexander
Sutton, H.
Tullis, William
Tollhurst, J. T.
Taylor, A. R.
Unsworth, Ernest
Van Mill, S. J.

Vinsenci, L.
Watts, Clarence L.
Wilkins, C. L.
Walker, George
Weeks, Ernest
Wright, William
Waters, W. M.
Wiltshire, F. J.
Whitworth, Thomas
Watret, Robert
Whiteside, U.
White, George
Wallace, Clarence
Wadsworth, A. J.
Walker, W. J.
Young, Jas.

The following officers remain in charge of the regiment at home, which has been recruited up to good strength:

Major H. T. Wilson.

Captain W. D. S. Rorison.

Lieuts. Broome, Tyner, Rose and Day.

Chaplain Rev. J. Thompson, Hon. Capt.

6th Field Co. Canadian Engineers

This company of engineers and sappers was organized February, 1911, with headquarters at North Vancouver.

The Commanding Officer is Major J. P. Fell, who has gone with the following to form the Overseas Contingent:

Captain N. W. Robertson.

Lieutenants J. R. Cosgrove, D. P. Bell-Irving, J. C. Macdonald.

Sergeant

Graham, A. E.
Holland, H.

Corporal

Ross, A.
Rawson, C. H.
Beasley, F.

Lance Corporals

Stein, C. D. P.
Dickenson, R.
Greaves, F. G. H.
Booth, L. C.
English, J. H.

Sappers

Adams, J.
Anderson, R.

Acott, W.

Andison, T. W.
Allen, J.
Asbury, J.

Bright, C. J.
Bird, S. A.
Borrie, W. J.
Bate, S. C.

Brind, F. C.
Brown, J. O.
Brown, T.

Bridgewater, E. J.
Bowles, F.
Baillie, W. G.

Carlo, J.
Casement, R. J.
Carlisle, F. R.

Carey, J.

Cherry, F.
Campbell, J.
Clough, W.
Coutts, J.
Chillingworth, G.

Dickie, A. H.
Davis, A. W.
Davis, C. A.
Dickson, A. N.

Estey, F. B.
Evans, A. J. L.
Fraser, J. A.
Freer, L. H.

Gaitskill, G. H.
Greer, P. E.
Goad, A.