

OTTAWA, Nov. 14, 1912

Sir:

I have the honour to transmit herewith a report on Mine-Rescue Work in Canada by W. J. Dick, Mining Engineer of the Commission of Conservation. The report describes the various types of apparatus used in this work and also outlines the progress that has been made in establishing mine rescue stations in Europe and in the United States.

Your obedient servant

JAMES WHITE

Secretary

HON. CLIFFORD SIFTON,
Chairman,
Commission of Conservation
