

The Rev. W. Godfrey, on the part of the Committee, read a list of suggested Representatives to the Provincial Synod. Several others being nominated, a ballot was taken for eighteen members from each House, with the understanding that the twelve highest in the number of votes be the Representatives, and the other six be substitutes.

The following was the result :

Clergy.	Laity.
Rev. H. L. Owen.	W. C. Silver.
" R. J. Uniacke, D.D.	George Reading.
" J. J. Ritchie.	N. White.
" E. B. Nichols.	E. Kaulbach.
" T. H. White, D.D.	J. T. Wylde.
" T. Maynard.	Hon. W. B. Vail.
Very Rev. the Dean.	E. P. Archbold.
Rev. G. Townshend.	W. Gossip.
" J. Ambrose.	J. T. Wood.
" G. W. Hodgson.	B. Zwicker.
" J. Storrs.	J. Y. Payzant.
" Canon Hensley.	J. R. DeWolf, M. D.
" W. Godfrey.	W. H. Moody.
" C. Bowman.	A. M. Cochran.
" Canon Gilpin.	C. B. Bowman.
" P. Filluel.	G. P. Black.
" D. C. Moore.	W. M. Brown.
" F. H. Almon.	S. P. Fairbanks.

The Bishop introduced the subject of the new Lectionary, and read the following proposal :

"The Bishop informs the Clergy and Lay-members of the Synod that, if the new Lectionary should be made part of the law of the Church of England, it is his purpose to order it to be used in this Diocese, from the date at which it shall be ordered in England, or as soon after as Books can be procured, provided this introduction shall meet the approval of the Synod."

It was moved by the Rev. W. M. Godfrey, seconded by the Rev. H. L. Owen, that :

"It is the opinion of this Synod that it would be better to defer the adoption of the new Lectionary."

The motion was by a large majority

Col. Poyntz presented a collection of Church

The Committee on the rapid withdrawal of this Diocese makes as possible learn the part of Christian duty

If the word is pressed by them, and a great hitherto have either

It is unreasonable objects of those for will accept) have been in the first place, under the sympathies of the the blessing of Him, all our Churches should Next—We believe presented to the that as in the days and success, each occasion of public worship honor the opportunity the table of the Lord him." Whilst there that all contributions be made through the Synod, the best method System.

Some Parishes propose system by which tions, with its necessary facility which it affords special objects; others leaving to the individual or neglecting to secure a mixture of both systems objects requiring punishment for other purposes than buting.

As the duty of supporting can only be effected