- GEORGE HOUSEMAN THOMAS was a distinguished English historical painter who came early in life to America and started an illustrated paper in New York, and whose friendship with T. W. Strong lasted until his death. His subsequent work on the early vols. of the Illustrated London News, especially in connection with Garibaldi's heroic defence of Rome against the French, will ever be remembered. To the man of letters and to the artist it is a charming volume, and together with the Cornhill illustrations, should be in a public library.
