Too Man .

It is said that our fashionable Saratoga Beau Brimmell had fifty suits of apparel, and necktics innumerable. He managed to get through: or rather into, all these costumes at least once during the past season. If that man had dealt at Robert Wallace's clothing establishment such a variety would not have been necessary. One of his nobby Scotch tweed suits will last a long time, and always looks nice and fresh. He leads the trade in stylich autifier and keeps the the trade in stylish outfits, and keeps the largest stock of fine suitings in the city.

IRELAND.

Dublin, April 27.—An extraordinary sensation was caused at the Land League meeting yesterday by Dillon's speech on eviction. He mentioned a circumstance where a priest warned forty police dat if they attempted an eviction half a dozen would be shot by men inside the house with loaded rifles. The police withdrew. Dillon stated that if eviction was carried Dillon stated that if eviction was carried out on a large scale in Tipperary, the police must be prepared for highling. At a meeting of the Dublin corporation on Monday, a vote of condolence for the death of Beaconsfield was lost. A caretaker named Leyden, on a farm near Clifton, Galway, was shot dead on Monday by nine rullians who surrounded bis house. His son was severely wounded his house. His son was severely wounded. regainst Constable McNaughton, Donnelly, and Broder, and a verdict of manslaaghter against Constable Hayes for shooting two men at Clogher. At a Land Lengue meeting at Dublin, on Tuesday, Dillon warned the Govern-ment that wholesale evictions would not be effected without armed resistance. An appeal would be made to suspend proces-ses for a year, and if evictions were en-forced armed resistance would be offered, and all bloodshed would be on the head of Gladstone and Forster. The Pall Mall Gazette says that if Dil-lon in his speech on evictions is right.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that if Di-lon in his speech on evictions is right, there is very little chance of the Land Bill getting through Parliament in time to prevent the occurrence of painful and disastrons events in freland. It would have been better to bear for a time with the evils against which coercion was in-tended the prevent the operator of a time with the evils against which coercion was in-second reading or move any amendment. The action of the Tories is confused in regard to the Land Bill in consequence of the attitude of the Ulster Tories, who are pledged to support tenant right and cannot oppose the second reading. The resolu-tion adopted at the Tory meeting on Wedtion adopted at the fory meeting on Wed-nesday will therefore prove fruitless, and the report is generally credited that it will be abandoned. The Bill will be modified in Committee, but its fate depends on the House of Lords. Many peers have a fixed determination to reject it. Salisbury is understood to be prepared for this course, but Lord Cairns and the Duke of Rich-mond are not. Cairns is a lawyer and an Ulster man, while Richmond was President of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Activity of Course, and reclamation of waste of the Agricultural Commission. Should the views of these two prevail, the Irish members will support the second reading almost unanimously. The Irish party have just resolved to try and make the Bill retrospective regarding arrears, and will warmly oppose the emigration clauses which are, however, likely to be retained owing to the strong opinion entertained in England on the necessity of emigration. The Government now expects to carry the Bill without serious opposition except from Parnell.

A boy named Farrell was shot and dangerously wounded at Dublin on Sunday, for giving information leading to the dis-covery of arms in a house where he was every of arms in a noise where ne was employed. The man doing the shooting was arrested. It is supposed that it was the work of Fenians. The city of Dublin has been proclaimed under the Arms Act, it is stated that Dillon will be arrested.

police charged the mob several times, but the bailiff's life being threatened her-fused to point out the houses of de-faulting tenants. It is stated two hun-dred persons in the mob were armed with revolvers. Another attempt to evict ten-ants will be made shortly. Dublin, April 29.—A man named Joyce was arrested to-day on board a steamer which was leaving Galway for America, on the charge of complicity in the murder of Leyden, the earctaker. Some idea may be formed of the hold which the land agitation has taken of the minds of the farmers when it is stated that the spring agricultural operations which ought to have been almost com-pleted have not been commenced through-out vasts trates of county. This is speci-ally the case in the southwest, where the greatest uncertainty and confusion proval. The attention of the people is absorbed in sheriff's sales and evictors, to which they gather in thousands from a distance. The gather the deficient crops. All the Land Bills the Government could pass in twenty years would not make up for this fatal neglect. The days are long bright and warm, and yet the feeling of the if ate, has paralyzed the worn-out energies of the small farmers. They have in the that they cannot return with satisfaction to their legitimate occupations the winter that they cannot return with satisfaction to the inglight the discust on the so deeply of political strife during the winter that they cannot return with satisfaction to their legitimate occupations for the peasantry as one of sullen deter-mination. The mob destroyed the Synagogue. Many of the rioters were killed by the troops which were summoned to repress the riot. Paris, April 27.—A St. Petersburg let-ter affirms that the complicity of the Grand Duke Nicholas in the plots of the Nihilists has been made clear, and he has been sentenced, by a decree of the Em-peror, to imprisonment for life. St. Petersburg, April 27.—The Emperor family huddled together on the roadside. The tide of emigration has already reached alarming figures. The enormous receives ot the Land League Executive Committee from America is attracting increased at-tention. At the last meeting it was an nounced that the unprecedented sum of $\pounds 60,000$ was received during the week previous, principally from America. The syms from the local branches in Ireland have fallen almost to nothing. Parnell will not speak on the Land Bill in the House of Commons until the final in the House of Commons until the final in the House of Commons until the final tention. At the last meeting it was an the services to the Empire. At a banquet on Wednesday night Hart-ington defended the policy of the Cabinet.
