and far inland, but likely the south shore will prove the richest. I am interested with a company of ten in two claims, and have no doubt of being successful. One claim of 23 acres is thought by a man of large experience (a Colonel Russ) to be very productive, and he says if it turns out what he believes it will, it will prove enough for all hands. It is eight feet wide. In six weeks it will be proved, and if not good, we will have to pay nothing for it. $200 will prove it, and if indications are realized, it will be in-exhaustible, and worth millions. Col. Russ says that no quartz can be found in California so rici tion of Halifax, to Her Majesty Queen VICTORIA, on her late melancholy bereavement:—
