JOHNSON'S NEW METHOD FOR HARMONY.

By A. N. JOHNSON. "The best book in the world" (for its object), "the best commendation bestowed by an enthusiastic pupil on a former book by the same author. However that may be, this is his newest treatise, and can hardly be excelled for plainness of explanation, ease and thoroughness. It does not attempt Counterpoint, or any of the higher problems of composition; but confines itself to those things that every organist, every good player, and every composer of "the people's music," ought to know.

STAMMERING CERTIFICATE.

We, the undersigned, residents of North Sydney and vicinity, in Cape Breton, having known Miss Lawlor when afflicted with, and oftentimes pained to witness her struggling with that impediment, stammering, have now much pleasure in testifying, through this medium, that she has been relieved of the above referred to difficulty. She can now give utterance to her ideas, with a freedom of speech, at once free, deliberate and apparently without effort.

We learn from her that she attended, last December, the Stammering Institute at Halifax—in charge of H. B. Mackintosh, Esq.—having been empowered to use the method first known to, and practiced by Professor Sutherland, of London, Ont.

We heartily recommend those similarly affected, as Miss Lawlor, to avail themselves of the privilege of attending an institution calculated to render such valuable aid to both old and young.
