Difficulties.—We shall find difficulties in all great enterprises; if we be sure we have begun them from God we may securely cast all events upon His providence, which knows how to dispose and how to end them.

A Gentleman.—Whoever is open, loyal and true; whoever is of humane and affable demeanor; whoever is honorable in himself, and in his judgment of others, and requires no law but his word to make him fulfil his engagement—such a man is a gentleman.

Read Yourself.—An old writer says:—Read not books alone, but men, amongst them chiefly thyself. If thou find anything questionable there, use the commentary of a severe friend rather than the gloss of a sweet-lipped flatterer. There is more profit in a distasteful truth than deceitful sweetness."
