MISS F. E. CARROLL Lady Principal

The Church of the Good Shepherd, Shelton, Conn., received on Christmas Day, a very handsome Litany Desk and book, the gift of Miss Emma H. Thorp, who is a great friend of the parish.

The 80th anniversary of the consecration of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kensington, Philadelphia, was observed recently. At Evensong a sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Washburn, rector of old Christ Church.

A memorial was unveiled in the grounds of Trinity Church, Boston, on Saturday afternoon, the 22nd ult., the day before the 17th anniversary of his death, to Bishop Phillips Brooks. There was a large number of people present including a number of dissenters. The Bishop of the diocese, Dr. Laurence, officiated. The memorial is the gift of the citizens, and it consists of two figures, Phillips Brooks and Christ. The Bishop stands in the foreground with his left hand resting on a reading-desk on which is an open book. The right hand is raised in benediction. In the background on the left stands a hooded figure of Christ with His right hand resting on the left shoulder of the minister. Beside him and at the back of the central figure a tall cross rises. The bronze group is enclosed by a canopy of Tennessee granite. It is approached by a mosaic walk stretching from the sidewalk.

St. Luke's Church, Delta, Colo., has received within the past few months several memorial gifts. From a lady in Chicago a solid silver bread-box; from two resident communicants, a pulpit; from the members of the Women's Guild, a leaded glass East window, in memory of Bishop Leonard and Knight, from the little girls' Sunday School class a small window in memory of a former vicar, and from the choir two sanctuary windows, in memory of the Rev. W. T. Douglas, a former curate of the parish. One of the wardens has given a window in memory of his infant son and a lady who is a Methodist has given a window in memory of her mother who assisted the Rev. A. Miller, who is the priest-in-charge, to organize St. Luke's Mission, more than twelve years ago.
