It is because such incidents as these occur and are recorded in this Nelsonian fashion that the Canadian plains have been exempt from the plague of Cowboy Jacks, and the name of the Royal North-terror to the evil-doer.—Toronto Globe.

DISGRACE TO THE PROFESSION.

The late Earl of Shaftesbury once lost his watch while walking in Whitechapel. He advertised his loss, as he valued his watch for certain associations.
Within twenty-four hours his household was aroused by a violent ring and knock at the street door, and the wheels of a vehicle were heard hurrying away in the distance. On opening the front door a sack was found, filled with something that moved.

On examining the sack a boy of the Artful Dodger class was found, bound hand and foot and gagged. Round his neck was the missing watch, and underneath was a placard, with the words:—
'Lock him up, mi lord; he's a disgrace to our profession. He orter known as giv' 'im five years 'ard.—YER FRIENDS.'

The Earl did not take the advice of his 'friends.' He reformed the Artful Dodges, who eventually became a light of the London Shoeblack Brigade.— Good Words.

If Nero had owned a phonograph it would have saved him a lot of fiddling while Rome was burning.
