

ATLAS PORTLAND CEMENT

"THE STANDARD BY WHICH ALL OTHER MAKES ARE MEASURED"

You're wrong—one Portland Cement is not as good as another. If this were true why is the U.S. Government using ATLAS brand exclusively in building the Panama Canal? Or why was ATLAS brands elected for the great Mississippi dam now being constructed at Keokuk, Iowa?

All brands were tested, and ATLAS had the desired quality—a quality as necessary to the success of your concrete work around the farm as to the success of these great engineering enterprises.

When you buy Portland Cement, insist on ATLAS. This trademark, on every bag or barrel, is your guide in getting the best.
