Awarding Prizes

The Three Fans depositing the largest number of points will win the season tickets.

The next twenty-five Fans in order of points will each have a grandstand ticket to the opening game.

How to Get Points

Read the Daily Courier every day. Each head counts five points,

Call at the office of The Courier and pay 75c for The Courier three months in advance, or longer, to be left at your home. Then you can cut the heads each day, thus getting over double credit for the same paper.

Induce your friends to buy The Courier every day and give you the heads. Better still get them to subscribe for three months or more and turn over the certificates, each good for points to you.

Make it a rule to get a few heads every day.

Don't lose a minute—start now by clipping to-morrow's date.

Phone or write your friends at once to get busy.

Consult the Rules
