LOW NECK CLAMS.

A Joke That Met a Man Who Had a Feeble Sense of Humor.

An ex-governor of Wisconsin, famous as a story teller, once rejoiced a company of friends with an account of his experience at a New Jersey clam-bake.

"I started off," said the ex-governor, telling the story, "by stating that I had eaten so many of their low neck clams that I wasn't in the least sort of condition for speechmaking. At that moment a long faced old man directly across the table scowled at me and said in a stage whisper:

"Little neck clams, little necks, not low necks!"

"I paid no attention to him and went on with my remarks. After dinner he followed me out of the hall.

"You're from Wisconsin, aren't you?" he asked.

"Yes," I answered.

"Don't have many clams out there, I reckon?"

"Well," I said, "we have some, but it's a good way to water, and in driving them across the country their feet get sore and they don't thrive very well."

"Why, man alive," said he, "clams haven't any feet!"

"Soon after that he buttonholed one of my friends.

"Is that fellow governor of Wisconsin?" he demanded.

"My friend admitted that I was.

"Waal," said he, "praps he may be a smart enough man for Wisconsin, but he's a good deal of a fool at the seashore!"

TESTED HIS LIBERALITY.

And the Host in Turn Tested His Guests' Generosity.

A rather parsimonious gentleman got the better of some of his acquaintances, who were continually pestering him about his niggardliness. Goaded to desperation by their taunts, he one day invited his detractors to a dinner.

When they made their appearance they were simply astonished at the magnificence of the treat provided. Apologies were tendered, and the miserly individual was warmly complimented as well.

"Now, gentlemen," said the host when acknowledging their compliments, "you have put my liberality to a test. I am going to try your generosity. I know a poor man who is very much in need of financial help through untoward circumstances, and I propose to raise a subscription in his behalf. See, I commence the list with 10 shillings. Will you help?"

Needless to say every one subscribed liberally, as no one cared to be thought more cheap than the host, who, when he had collected all the money, coolly said:

"I thank you, gentlemen, for your sympathy, and now I think we are quits. You have paid both for your joke and your dinner. It was I who required the money."

A Monument to Her Oath.

In the market place of Devizes, a town in Wiltshire, England, there stands a monument erected by public subscription as a warning to falsifiers and irreverent persons, to commemorate the tragic death of a woman who, according to the inscription on the stone, was stricken dead as a punishment for her blasphemy. The story, as told among the country folk, is that one of the village women, becoming involved in a dispute over money with a merchant in the Corn Exchange, called on the Almighty, with a fearful oath, to strike her dead if her statement was false. As she left the market place on her way home she fell dead upon the spot where the monument now stands, her perjured gains being afterward found in her tightly clenched hand.

A Few Twists.

Some Sabatha girls once made up a list of definitions of Kansas towns, the names of the towns to be guessed from the definitions. Here they are: Very bowlegged, Great Bend; a thin monastery, Abilene; the price of yeast, Leavenworth; why Mrs. Smith went, Smith Center; descendant of a sneeze, Atchison; a sire, a circle and a term in singing, Paola; what the American needs to secure a duke, Price; what some folks have to do for a living, Russell; my first, not wearing the second, got the third, Manhattan.

An Oversight.

"Look here," exclaimed the angry man as he rushed into the real estate agent's office, "that round I bought from you yesterday is thirty feet under water!"

"Pardon my oversight," apologized the gentlemanly agent. "We give a diving suit with each plot. I will send yours today."

Encouraging.

"Perhaps, doctor," said the sick man,
"you'd better present your bill."

"No," replied the doctor. "I don't want to worry you with that now."

"Oh, well, if you think it's best!"

"Yes, I'll send it in to your executor in good time."

"A Chicagoan named Littledale played with me in amateur theatricals in my early youth," said a well known actor.

"Littledale in one of our shows had to leap into a river in order to escape from a wild beast.

"The stage was so arranged that the river was invisible. Littledale was to leap and disappear, striking a soft mattress in the wings, and at the same time a rock was to be dropped in a tub of water to create a splash.

"But, though the leap worked all right in rehearsal, on the night of actual performance it went wrong. There was neither mattress nor tub there.

When poor Littledale jumped he fell eight feet and landed on an oaken floor with a crash loud enough to wake the dead, and there was no splashing water to drown the crash, by Jove.

"The audience, expecting to hear a splash and hearing instead the thunderous impact of Littledale's bones on the oak, set up a titter. But the heroic Littledale, equal to the occasion, silenced them.

"Heaven's," he shouted from below,
"the water's frozen!" — Home Maga-

The Account Settled In Full.

At a salon in Paris some years ago the Sieur d'Almerie was one of a group to whom he was imparting an account of his pedigree, which he claimed was derived from the pharaohs of Egypt.

Just then the late Baron de Rothschild approached the group, and one of its members called out: "Baron, come and let me make you acquainted with the Sieur d'Almerie. He comes from phar-aonic stock, and you ought to know each other."

"Yes," said the baron, bowing gravely and addressing d'Almerie, "I believe our families had some transactions in time past."

"Yes," rejoined d'Almerie, "we have a record that your people when leaving the country borrowed a considerable amount of jewelry from my people, for which I should now like to be repaid, with interest."

"Remember the transaction," said Rothschild, "but the account was settled at due date. Your fathers received a check on the Bank of the Red Sea."

The Farmer's Wife

Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomachchurn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet and does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element.

In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers, and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood.

If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distressing stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agent known to medical science for the cure of all these symptoms and conditions, as stated above, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
It is a purely vegetable and harmonious combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famous medicine and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

INTERNATIONAL S. S. LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

God Gives Jacob a New Name.— Gen. 32, 9-12 and 23-30.

Golden Text—"Rejoice, because your names are written in heaven." —Luke 10, 20.

The patriarch Jacob, now an old man about 97, who had yet to "Get Right with God," finds he is at last cornered, by God's providence, either to submit or perish. Jacob has learned to pray, and in our lesson we have one of the best prayers in the Bible—from the 9th to the 12th verses.

Verse 24—"And Jacob was left alone, and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day." Jacob was a strong man in every sense, what a self-made man. He had been a wrestler for near a century; even at his birth he had a grip on Esau—see Gen. 25, 26—he had already wrestled with Isaac, Esau, Laban, and perhaps others, and outmatched them; but alone, in darkness, confronted with an unknown opponent, no doubt with his utmost strength and skill, for a while apparently he holds his own, until this mysterious stranger touched—verse 25—the hallow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was strained as he wrestled with him. Jacob cannot wrestle with his thigh bone out of joint, yet he can cling, and, hanging on to God, for He it is who conquers Jacob, he wins out.

Only a surrendered soul can prevail with God or men. God was teaching Jacob, and is teaching us, the folly of wrestling against Him.
See Gen. 6, 3. And Jehovah said, My spirit will not strive with man forever.

How God wrestles with us in spirit, and how prone are we to strive against a Heavenly Father until He has to touch us in what we count our strongest point, that one we believe we can depend on.
Sometimes it's money, position, intellect, education, friends, physical health or strength; but He only can overcome our stubborn self-confidence and self love and produce in us real submission and confidence in Himself.

Reader, Teacher, Scholar, have you stepped out of self into Christ? Have you crossed Jordan though limping in the flesh, and entered Canaan with a new name and new nature, as a prince of God?

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT

Was Alarmingly Afflicted With La Grippe.
Cured by Pe-ru-na.

The Grip Is Properly Termed Epidemic Catarrh.

As Pe-ru-na Relieves Every Form of Catarrh, It Has Probably Relieved More Cases of Grip Than
Any Other
Remedy

HON. W. H. PARSONS,
925 H. St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Fear of Grip Makes People Nervous.

There is no remedy in the world that meets the conditions produced by the grip better than Peru-na.

Peru-na strengthens as it renovates, soothes while it stimulates, heals as it expurgates.

It reaches the source of all diseases of the mucous membranes by its action on the vaso-motor system of nerves.

After-Effects of the Grip.

Every person who has had la grippe during the last year should take a course of Peru-na.

The grip has produced catarrhal inflammation of the whole mucous membrane, and good health is impossible until these are restored to a normal condition. This Peru-na will do.

A great many remedies have been suggested for this condition from time to time, but Peru-na is the only remedy that has gained great popularity in these cases.

It has seldom failed to give satisfaction during forty years' experience and still occupies the unique position of being the leading and most generally used remedy for the after-effects of la grippe.

W. H. Parsons is Ex-State Senator and Ex-Special Judge of the Supreme Court of Texas, and was also Brigadier-General in Confederate Army. In a recent letter from 925 H. St., N. W., Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman says:

"Upon the recommendation of personal friends and many strong testimonials as to the efficacy of Peru-na in the treatment of the numerous symptoms of the grippe with which I have been afflicted for four months past, I have been induced to undergo a treatment with this justly celebrated formula. I feel a decided change for the better after using it only one week.

"It is especially good in toning up the stomach and has had a decided effect upon my appetite. I therefore feel much encouraged that I am on the road to complete restoration.

"My numerous friends in Texas, where I have had the honor to command a brigade of her Veteran Cavalry in a four years' war, may accept this voluntary testimonial to the merits of Peru-na as a sense of obligation on my part for its wonderful efficacy." — W. H. Parsons.

No Time Like the Present.

If you are suffering from the after-effects of la grippe—if you have become discouraged in your attempts to cure yourself with other treatments, take a bottle of Peru-na now.

A bottle of Peru-na taken during the beginning of the disease is worth more than a dozen bottles after the trouble has become deep-seated.

La Grippe Affected Lungs.

Mrs. Olive Cushman, Fonda, Ia., writes:

"Two years ago I was taken very sick with la grippe. It started on my lungs.
Our home physician did all he could for me, but it did me but little good. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman and he prescribed for me. I followed his advice and my cure is permanent. I am sure I have a good appetite, sleep well and enjoy life. I am so happy to be well once more. A friend in need is a friend indeed, and such a friend has Peru-na been to me."

Pe-ru-na, a Good Medicine for La Grippe.

Mrs. Louise Eastman, Lancaster, Wis., writes:

"I am all right. I do not think I need any more treatment. I am able to do my own work which I could not do at the time I wrote you. My cough is gone, my appetite is good, I sleep good, and my bowels are all right. I think Peru-na is a good medicine for the grip."

WILLIAM ST. BAPTIST.

ing at 10.
