CAPTURED BY BANDITS

Gen. Sir Harry MacLean Seized as Hostage by Raisuli.

To Be Held Prisoner Until Sultan Grants Demands of Bandit Chief—Was on Mission of Pacification—Bearing Presents From Moroccan Ruler—Punitive Expedition Has Been Sent Out.

Tangier, July 4.—Kaid Gen. Sir Harry MacLean, commander of the Sultan's bodyguard and next to the Sultan, the most influential man in Morocco, has been captured by Raisuli, the bandit chief. The latter has announced that he will hold the general prisoner until the Sultan grants the terms which he, Raisuli, demands for his own pardon and MacLean's release.

For some time past, Gen. MacLean, acting in behalf of the Sultan, had been trying to persuade Raisuli to resume a peaceful mode of life, and recently the bandit leader had apparently showed signs of willingness to meet the wishes of the Moroccan authorities, with the result that Gen. MacLean, who is a former officer of the British army, having served in the 60th Regiment of Infantry, the descendant of an old Scotch family, and a man universally respected, even among the most fanatical of the foreign-hating Moors, was entrusted with the task of taking some presents from the Sultan to Raisuli, in the hope of finally persuading him to come to terms.

These gifts consisted of horses, and tents, and to escort them to his stronghold, Raisuli sent 15 of his banditti to the general to act as a bodyguard.

Accompanied by these men, MacLean journeyed towards Rouina, where he was to meet Raisuli. But on arriving there the general was informed that he was a prisoner. Later Raisuli sent a messenger to the Sultan, announcing the capture of his bodyguard and informing his majesty that he would hold the general a prisoner until the following terms were granted for his surrender:

First—The reconstruction of Raisuli's house at Zinat.

Second—The payment of an indemnity of 100,000 doures, about $200,000.

Third—His reappointment as governor of Tangier and of Fehs, and his appointment as commandant of police.

The officials of the British Legation subsequently confirmed the announcement of the capture of Gen. MacLean.

The Sultan is launching a punitive expedition against the Adjera tribe of this vicinity, owing to the fact that they have not paid their tribute to his majesty's collectors.

What Will Britain Do? Kaid MacLean is now at Elkes, in the heart of a wild mountain district, three days' march from Tangier. He is being well treated, and has been allowed to write to the British Minister and send for his baggage.

The capture of the general was planned carefully. He went out to the rendezvous with Raisuli, against the advice of his companions.

The incident is being discussed with deep interest in diplomatic circles, and the action of the British authorities is awaited with considerable anxiety. It is recognized that the affair may entail the gravest consequences.

AN EXAMPLE.
Do you really believe that Samson lost his strength by having his hair cut? asked the non-believer. I have no reason to doubt it, replied the practical man.

Well, it may be so. A talkative barber always makes us tired.

EX-Governor of Wyoming Endorses Pe-ru-na.

As a Catarrh Remedy.

As An Excellent Tonic.

"I have such confidence in prominent personal friends who have used and endorsed Peruna that I feel justified in assuming that it is a valuable remedy for catarrh and an excellent general tonic."

John W. Hoyt.
Victoria Falls,
Washington, D. C.

The Magnificent State Capitol Building of Wyoming.

Responsible People.
PEOPLE occupying positions of high responsibility and trust are always very busy people. They have little or no time to devote to idle issues. It is therefore very rare that such people are willing to write testimonials for anything.

Then again there is a natural diffidence in giving public endorsement to any commercial enterprise on the part of people who are much before the public.

Rare Endorsements.
It is thus that it is very rare that public officials, like governors, congressmen, consuls, senators, etc., give public endorsement to a proprietary medicine.

It is therefore a great triumph that Peruna has the unqualified endorsement of so many men in official position.

Scores of public officials of national reputation have enthusiastically declared in favor of Peruna in public print over and over again.

A Startling Fact.
There is no way to account for such a startling fact as this except that Peruna has extraordinary unusual merit. After all, people high and low, are constituted very much alike.

Natural Enthusiasm.
When a person has been really helped in getting rid of some chronic malady, after other things have failed, it is quite natural for enthusiasm to lead people to make a statement of the fact. For great services, gratitude is natural.

This is the only way that it can possibly be explained why it is that so many persons prominent in public, diplomatic and social life give testimony for Peruna.

Actual Benefit.
Peruna promptly relieves. This is the explanation. Catarrh is a disease difficult to relieve. A great many of the doctors fail to relieve it.

Gratitude Results.
A few bottles of Peruna cure a chronic malady of many years standing and it is almost impossible to repress the natural feelings of gratitude which spring up.

Catarrh of Head and Throat.
Mr. Joseph Reiss, 3424 N. 14th street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I had catarrh of the head and throat, but through the use of five bottles of Peruna and two bottles of Manalin I was cured."

"I think that Peruna is the best tonic that I have ever used and I would advise all catarrhal sufferers to use Peruna."

Despaired of Being Cured.
"For several years I was not entirely well, and despaired of ever being cured, as I had used numerous remedies that my friends advised. I doctored for two years without any improvement."

A Last Resort.
"As a last resort I tried Peruna, and am pleased to say that in a short time I was completely cured."

"I have not been troubled for over a year. I am pleased to endorse Peruna as it saved me a world of suffering."
