

Women Suffer Agonies from Kidney Trouble

GIN PILLS CURE THEM

There is Mrs. Ripley, for instance. She suffered terribly with her back. It ached, ached, ached—all the time. Even in bed, it seemed as if she could not get easy. It finally became so bad that housework was impossible.

She certainly was a discouraged woman when she began to take GIN PILLS. And there isn't a happier, healthier woman in the Dominion than this same Mrs. Ripley to-day.

Williamdale East, May 6th. I cannot refrain from writing you the benefits I have received from GIN PILLS. Before I had taken GIN PILLS I suffered dreadfully with my back, and had suffered for twenty years. I have tried almost everything but got no relief until I got GIN PILLS.

I have taken six boxes and now I have not the sign of a pain or an ache in my back. I am now as good as well as I ever did in my life. There is nothing so good a place with a pill for pains in the back to which women are subject. Yours truly,

Mrs. Ripley had serious Kidney trouble. And the sick kidneys were giving her back aches—were sapping her strength—and dragging her down. GIN PILLS really saved her life. GIN PILLS cured her kidneys. She has been well ever since. GIN PILLS are a grand medicine for women.

Try them at our expense. Mention this paper when writing and we will send you a free sample so you can see for yourself just what GIN PILLS will do for you. The Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg, Man.

MOROCCO IN REBELLION

Sultan Deposed in Favor of His Brother

Tangier, May 6.—According to information received here from Morocco city, the whole of the southern part of Morocco is in the rebellion. The populace of Morocco had proclaimed Mulai Hafid, brother of the reigning Sultan to be Sultan of Morocco. Mulai released the prisoners from the jail arrested for the murder of Dr. Mauchamp, the French citizen whose assassination caused the intervention of France in Morocco and restored the old governor of the city.

It is reported that many of the local officials have sent word over to Sultan Mulai Abb El Aziz, who is at Fez, that they will no longer recognize his authority.

IAN MACLAREN IS DEAD

Burlington, La. May 6.—Mr. John Watson (Ian MacLaren) died at 11.15 a.m., today at Mount Pleasant, Iowa. The cause was blood poisoning from tonsillitis. He was taken ill at Mount Pleasant, April 25.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or the Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptomatic treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and the Kidneys as well have their controlling nerves. Weaken those nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here, is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves".

Also, for bloating, biliousness, and breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by A. McG. McDonald.

KING EDWARD A MASTER OF DIPLOMACY

Paris, May 4.—The French Press regards King Edward's continental tour which ended today with his departure from this city for London, as being fraught with large political significance. The following is a sample opinion: "The King has demonstrated that he is a master of diplomacy. He has succeeded in applying to Germany from the political point of view, the continental blockade which Napoleon I failed to apply to England commercially. Were King Edward twenty years younger the result might be dangerous for the peace of the world, but a man of sixty-six will hesitate to risk the grand coup."

VALUABLE MEDICAL PRESCRIPTION

Recommended by a Well-known Toronto Doctor, Whose Love for Humanity is Greater than His Prejudice Against Proprietary Medicines.

The following very valuable prescription, by an eminent and successful physician, will be appreciated by many who are suffering from the grippe, cold, cough, pneumonia, or any throat, lung or stomach trouble, or run-down system, as it is a certain cure, and will save many a doctor's bill. It is almost a certain preventive as well: "When you feel that you are taking cold or have chilly feeling or aching in any part of the body or head, or feel weak, tired, dizzy, unfit for work, pain in the head or back of the neck, do not neglect these dangerous symptoms, but send immediate to your druggist and get a bottle of Psychine (pronounced Sick-in), and prepare as follows:

"Psychine, 2 teaspoonfuls. "Sherry, whisky or water, 2 teaspoonfuls.

"Choice of the latter can be made according to the judgment and preference of the patient."

"Mix thoroughly and take regularly before each meal and at bedtime."

"This prescription has been used in thousands of cases and has been so universally successful that a number of leading physicians regularly prescribe Psychine in their practice for any of the above troubles, or any run-down, wasting, or constitutional difficulty. It is the most reliable and valuable home remedy. It tones up the entire system, giving a feeling of youthfulness and vigor, adding many years to the life of those who use it."

"Years ago I was almost a physical wreck and was suffering from lung troubles. Friends and neighbors thought I would never get better. I began to despair myself. Lying faint in my physician, I procured another one who recommended that I get PSYCHINE. I was surprised beyond description the effect it had. I seemed to gain life every day. In two weeks I was able to attend to my household again. There are no symptoms to me now."

MRS. HENDERSON, St. John, N.B.

"I had been suffering from La Grippe. My lungs were weak and I had a cough, but Psychine cured me."

MRS. H. BEAN, Chippewa, Ont.

Tenacious Form of Systematic Catarrh

Not an easy thing to cure, and a remedy that makes good deserves the credit. Catarrh cured Chas. H. Webb of Woodstock, N. B., who writes: "For a number of years I was troubled with systematic catarrh. It was a very tenacious form of the disease and nothing helped. I used Catarrhine and got relief. To build up my system I used Feronone. This combination can't be beaten. They cured me. Your case may be chronic but Catarrhine will drive out catarrh and keep it out. Two sizes, 25c and $1.00 at all dealers, sold under guarantee of satisfaction."

PEEK-A-BOO WAIST AS MARTYR'S BADGE

Cincinnati, May 2.—"It's come to a pretty pass when the police and judges take it upon themselves to tell women what kind of clothes they shall wear. For one, won't stand it, even if I go to jail for contempt of court."

This was a declaration today of Miss Alva Hall, twenty-two and pretty, who was ordered out of Judge William Luder's court because she appeared there in a lacy work shirt waist. Miss Hall does not deny that she wore a "peek-a-boo" of black net and that the holes in the network were of generous proportions, but she insists that it was none of the judge's business. Furthermore, she intimated to-day that she might sue the judge for the insult he subjected her to when he referred to her before a crowded courtroom as "half clothed."

Miss Hall's appearance in court created quite a stir. There was a creeping of necks as she entered and swept past the judge's bench with much rustling of silk skirts. A bald-headed man who had risen in the rear of the court room to get a better view stumbled over a bench. This relieved the tenseness of the situation, and it was then that Judge Luder issued his order against perforated waists.

Coming as it does, close upon the order recently issued by Chief of Police Paul Millikin to his policemen to restrain the promiscuous wearing of kimono, wrappers and lavender hose on the streets, Cincinnati is getting as a city of dress reform.

Judge Luder says "Woman's crown of glory is her modesty, and I don't think perforated waists have any crowns on them. They are also bad for the lungs."

CHAS. WHOOTEN, Port Mulgrave,

Theft Superstitions.

That superstition is a very common incentive to theft is the belief of Dr. Hellwig, of Berlin. For instance, it is a settled belief among the women of Posen that a wound can be surely healed by stealing a piece of body linen belonging to a woman, burning it and rubbing the wound with the ashes.

In Transylvania the remedy prescribed for swelling of the glands of the neck is to steal a piece of bacon and bind a slice of it over the swelling. This is a sovereign remedy for warts in Schleswig and Syria.

Stolen bread is a cure for many ills. It is the favorite appetizer in Russia and is so regarded also in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The conviction is on record of a man in England for stealing turnips to rub on the limbs of a crippled son. He was well able to pay for the turnips, but then the charm would not have operated.

In Styria people wear pieces of copper money suspended about their necks or copper rings on their fingers to avert erysipelas. The security is rendered tenfold if the object be stolen.

Theft is also considered a great help in producing good crops or the generous multiplication of flocks and herds. To free a failing crop of flax one must steal cattle to mix with it when it is ripe.

To prevent swarming bees from leaving the premises the wool of a black sheep must be stolen and kept on hand. On the other hand to drive cockroaches out of a house the sure plan is to steal a brackish from a neighbor's wagon and keep it red hot on the stove.

When a girl desires to see in a dream her future husband she must steal a pair of trousers on St. Andrew's Day. She must hide half a crust of bread in one of the pockets while she buries the other fragment then she places the trousers under her pillow and goes to bed fasting.

The ring stolen from the hand of a dead man is a general protection from evil. Anyone who steals an article on Christmas night, New Year's night or Twelfth night without detection can keep on stealing for a year with impunity.

The Danes consider that for one fisherman to steal another's landing net is equivalent to stealing his luck. The belief that stolen money is lucky money prevails all over Europe.

In Alsace well-to-do people will actually steal money to play the lottery, simply because they believe it is sure to win. The Magyars go to the farmyards of their most successful neighbors on New Year's night and carry off a barrowful of the earth, which they spread over their own, beating down each spadeful with seven slaps of the spade. The belief is that by doing so they transfer a good part of the neighbors' luck to themselves for the succeeding year.

The great astrologer pointed to an ominous group of stars.

"They tell me that you will be robbed by a dark man before another moon,"

Whispered the prophet. "Have you any idea who the dark man can be?"

The domestic man smiled sadly. "The coal man, of course," he sighed.

Gunner—"The gridiron hero is all smiles."

Guy—"Yes, he has captured a gridiron heroine."

Gunner—"A gridiron heroine?"

Guy—"Yes, a college girl who really knows how to broil a beef-steak."

Practical Elasticity

"Maritime" wirefences are made of a coil-spring wire that holds the coil shape and not only makes the fence easily adaptable to rough, holey, ground, but prevents the possibility of sudden strain and breakage as well.

"Maritime" wire fences need few posts; twenty or thirty feet apart is near enough. Every post saved reduces the cost.

Moreover a long panel between posts enables the fence to better encounter any sudden shock.
