LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

SENOR-INSTRUCTOR MOORE is here trying to secure recruits for the Royal Canadian Regiment at Halifax.

The body of the late Lieut.-Col. McLeod was laid to rest at Hunter River last Thursday afternoon with military honors, the band of the 23rd Regiment, with companies No. 2 and 5 of the Regiment composing the military procession. The funeral was very large being attended by people of all classes and creeds.

Wm. Power, who was shot by John Donalds had to have his leg amputated on Thursday morning, complication from blood poisoning rendering it necessary. The limb was taken off at the thigh. The bullet was discovered in the amputated leg, near the knee joint much further down than was thought. Although Power is very weak, he is improving and will likely recover. Donalds has left the Province.

A row occurred at Kensington one night last week in a tavern there, in which rum and a revolver were conspicuous features. A man named Hennessey was thought to have been shot, but it subsequently turned out that he had only been hit with a leg of a stove or some other playful instrument. It is also said that a row took place at Cardigan Bridge a few evenings ago in a similar shod, and a man named Doherty had his leg broken. What are we coming to?

A VERY sad accident occurred at Eldon on Saturday afternoon. Mr. John Robertson and his brother Joseph were chopping wood about a mile from their home. During the process of cutting a tree John stopped chopping to give some advice to Joseph in regard to the tree the latter was cutting. While he stood cautioning his brother his own tree fell, struck a stump, rebounded, and struck John on the head, knocking him senseless. His brother ran for assistance to the neighbors and they quickly removed him to his home, and medical aid was summoned. He did not regain consciousness, however, and at two o'clock his spirit passed away. The deceased was the son of Richard Robertson, Eldon, and was an industrious young man. His parents have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

The Edale Foundry Works, owned by the T. A. McLean Manufacturing Company, went up in smoke on Friday morning. The fire was discovered at 2 o'clock and when the firemen arrived, was a roaring mass of flames. The firemen did splendid work and by their persistent efforts succeeded in confining the flames to the one building. To do this four streams of water had to be played upon the burning building. At a quarter to five the fire-fighters, had the satisfaction of seeing that they had gained the mastery and a half hour later the fire was out. As a result of the fire, the boiler shop, machine shop, pattern room, carpenter shop, tool room, drafting room, and office have been badly gutted. The heavy machinery down stairs was kept well drenched, and escaped injury from the heat, but the lathe and planer have been damaged by water. In the two upper stories of the machine shop, the Diesel planer, surface planer, boring machine, jig saws, lathes, shapers, belt-ing, etc., have all been destroyed. The moulding shop, a separate brick building is the only part of the establishment that escaped. All the patterns in the accumulation of thirty years, and costing thousands of dollars have gone up in smoke. The office effects and some of the tools have been saved, but the full extent of damage to the iron work of the plant has not been determined. The boiler makers' and carpenters' tools have been destroyed, but the machinists' private tools, kept in boxes have been saved. The building is such a wreck, that it will be necessary to erect a new one. The total damage has been placed at about $25,000 and is about half covered by insurance. A new engine and rotary saw mill for the Davison Bros., Kensington, and 30 tons of castings for Hall Bros., Summerside, have been destroyed. The fire throws about sixty men out of employment. The works have been in operation in this city for thirty years, and this is the first fire in the history of the firm. Such a firm is not only a calamity to the city, but the whole Province, and Mr. McLean, has the sympathy of all in his misfortune. He is not disheartened however, but intends to rebuild, and hopes to have the business running at an early date.

THE Burns' Concert in the Opera House on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Caledonian Club, was a great success, both from an artistic and financial point of view. The programme consisted of eighteen numbers and afforded ample variety. Mr. Vinnicombe's orchestra rendered the Scottish Airs with all the vim and freshness which is characteristic of the playing of that fine organization. Mr. J. R. Davison's song, "Scotland Yet," was well rendered and met with deserved applause. In the quartet, "And Robin Grey," the voices of Mrs. W. H. Waite, Miss Florence Baker and Messrs. Chas. Hermans and G. H. Moore blended harmoniously. Mrs. Kent rendered A. G. Hale's description of "How the Gordons avenged Magersfontein," with much acceptance and had to respond to an encore. Miss Amy Earle's solo, "Jessie, the Flower o' Dunblane," was superbly rendered and called forth an encore. The spectacular scenes showing the march through the mountains by the boy's highland brigade and the drilling and different military manoeuvres to the music of bag-pipes was a sight that would have proved an object lesson to the Boers had they witnessed it. The Cotillon Dance by 30 lads and lasses was another very pretty feature and was rapturously applauded. The duet by Miss Amy and Mr. Charles Earle, "Hop on ye Gang, Laddie," was exquisitely rendered, and in response to the encore they gave "The Crookit Bawbee." Mr. Charles Earle also sang "Scotland Forever." He possesses a voice which for clearness and fine effect it would be difficult for any singer to surpass. The old fashioned Highland Fling by little Isabella McDonald was nicely executed, as was also the Spanish Dance by Mr. Geo. Chilton. The violin and clarinet solos by Professors Waite and Vinnicombe were very enjoyable features. Mr. Daniel McDonald, of Vernon River, in the Lowland dialect song, "When Duncan came a wooing," received a great ovation, and responded with "Come under my Plaidie." Miss Florrie Blake's solo, "The Backs and Bras," was one of the best numbers on the programme. She has a beautiful voice and had to respond to an encore, giving "Comin' thro' the Rye." The last number on the programme was "Auld Lang Syne," in which all the performers of the evening took part, and the singing of "God Save the King," brought to a close one of the most enjoyable concerts held in Charlottetown for a long time.

The Georgetown schools re-opened on Monday, having been closed during the smallpox quarantine. The Hotel family are staying at the hospital outside the town.

GORDON, the man who murdered two farmers at Whitewater, Man., two years ago, was arrested by Detective Power at Halifax, the other day. He had joined the Mounted Rifles under the name of John Gray, and was going to Africa. Detective Hyndman, of Winnipeg, says he is the right man.

Canada's Census.

The official figures of the census of 1901 for the whole Dominion shows that the total population is 5,369,866, an increase of 536,427. By provinces, compared with 1891, the figures are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Province and Population (1901 and 1891). Rows include Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, British Columbia, Northwest, Yukon, and Unorganized districts.

Total 5,369,868 (1901) vs 4,833,441 (1891). The unit of representation is there fore 25,367. It is found by dividing 65, the number of representatives allotted to Quebec by the British North America Act, into the population of that province. The representation by population will, therefore, stand as follows after the next redistribution:

Table with 2 columns: Province and Members. Rows include British Columbia, Northwest, Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Yukon.

This shows that British Columbia will gain one member; Northwest Territories, 2; Manitoba, 6; while one goes to the Yukon. The losses are six members in Ontario, one in New Brunswick, two in Nova Scotia, and one in Prince Edward Island. The representation in the present parliament is 213. In other words, while seven members will be added after the redistribution, ten will have to be deducted, making three less than at present.

In South Africa.

A report from Lord Kitchener at Johannesburg gives the news of the important capture of General Viljoen in the neighborhood of Lydenburg, Transvaal Colony, as well as the capture of small parties of Boers elsewhere. The capture of Viljoen, who was Batha's most able lieutenant and who has given the British great trouble in the past, has created lively satisfaction.

PRETORIA, Jan. 27.—Colonel Wilson last Saturday captured twenty Boers near Frankfort, in Orange River Colony. He was preparing at dawn next day to move away with his captives when a superior force of Boers made a desperate effort to recapture the prisoners. A hot fight ensued in which all but five prisoners escaped. A few men were killed or wounded on both sides.

JOHANNESBURG, Jan. 27.—While the Boer Commandant Boyers was passing Plettersburg this morning, he attacked the encircling block houses from the east. The firing lasted for twenty minutes. The Boers then cleared out, leaving three dead and three wounded on the field. There were no casualties on the British side. Boyers retreated to the wood bush mountains in the lower country.

PRETORIA, Jan. 28.—By a clever night march General Bruce Hamilton surprised a laager between Ermelo and Bethel in the Transvaal Colony, and charged the Boers, who fled in all directions and were pursued many miles by the British. As a result of this expedition eighty-two Boers and a quantity of stores were captured. The casualties were small.
