Port Saunders
Capture Three Whales.

The whaler Port Saunders, owned by the Newfoundland Shipbuilding Co., St. John's, which is now operating from their whaling station at Cape Broyle, started the season's hunt with the best of luck. On Thursday last she captured a leviathan and repeated the trick on Friday and Saturday, thus accounting for a whale a day for each day's work. The fish were in excellent condition and the yield as estimated will be highly satisfactory.

The Ethie Still on Bottom.

Should weather conditions be favourable another attempt to re-float the S. S. Ethie now on the rocks at Mistaken Point, will be made. Saturday's attempt was somewhat hampered by the heavy sea and the unsatisfactory working of the pumps.

Thoughts Upon
the Times.

(By PATRIOT.)

In no country in the world do the people risk more in the struggle to live than in Newfoundland. The spirit of adventure is in their blood.
Take the case of a successful planter.
He requires men to man his schooner for the Labrador. No matter what wages he may offer in reason he will find it easier to get men to go on the share system, or as "sharemen," rather than as shipped men. Men prefer to take the risk. They would rather the uncertainty than the certainty. It is the same with the merchant in supplying for the fisheries.
The whole thing has more or less of the gambling spirit about it. The very nature of the industry makes it so. Without this adventurous spirit our fisheries could not be successfully exploited. But it is a different thing altogether to apply the same principle to the Government. As I pointed out in my last article, everything depends this year on the fishery more than ever before. It is our only hope, and that hope is expressed in His Excellency the Governor's address at the closing of the Legislature. But not even a successful fishery, backed up by every conceivable method of taxation, new and old, will save us unless the fishermen are prepared to dig down into their pockets and their bank accounts and lend to the Government. If the Loan of six million dollars is to be a success, and it must be, the fishermen will have to make it so. There is no other alternative, because it is they who own the money. The position should be clearly understood by everyone.
Without a good fishery and the six million dollar loan the coming year will cease to be an independent Dominion. One of two things must happen. Either we become a Crown Colony again or accept Confederation with Canada. With regard to the latter, Mr. Morine's views as expressed in your columns a few days ago do not appear to the writer to be either sound or logical. They appear more like the views of the politician than the level headed statesman. He tells us that his views have recently undergone a change because he has two ago (since the war started) he was a Confederate. To-day he is anti-Confederate. He tells us he has undergone this change because he considers Canada is no longer a country desirable to confederate with. He implies that Newfoundland to-day is in a more prosperous condition than Canada. Let us examine this carefully and see if it is so. If we succeed in floating a six million dollar loan, Newfoundland's public debt will amount to a little over forty million dollars. This means about $170 per capita, or $850 for every family of five persons in the country. The cost of carrying this debt is about $10 per capita, or $50 for every family of five persons per annum. Against this we have practically nothing in the shape of assets. We have no population worth anything. They are likely after the war that emigrants will be attracted to our shores in preference to the broad and rich lands of Canada. Even our raw materials, such as iron ore is sent to Canada to be manufactured.

To-day Canada is a nation, and since the war has taken her place among the nations of the world, in a hundred years from now she will be one of the largest and wealthiest countries in the world. Her wheat fields are boundless as the ocean.
She has hundreds of millions of dollars invested in manufactures, mining, railways, fruit growing, etc. In short she has a magnificent future before her. Although Canada, in proportion to her population, has done much better than Newfoundland in man power to carry on the war, yet we find her public debt amounts to $125 per capita, or $625 per family of five persons. This is a much better showing than ours. Against her debt she has wheat, her wheat fields, her mines, her cattle, her hog ranches, her railways and manufactures.
We have nothing but our uncertain but profitable fisheries. I therefore before to agree with the reasons set forth by Mr. Morine for his change of views. Without using vulgar flattery, the writer would like to say he has always had a high opinion of Mr.
Morine's abilities. He is looked upon as one of the old school, in the same class as Sir Robert Bond and the late Sir William Whiteway and Sir James Winter—men as high above the present class of political pirates as the British are above the Germans. Mr.
Morine's reasons therefore do not appear to the writer as coming from his heart. I doubt whether he has gifted with foresight as he undoubtedly is, he can see into the future more than any other public man in our midst to-day. He can see what the reckless waste and borrowing of Morris mean to Newfoundland. He knows what the criminal negligence and malad-ministration of the present Government will lead to. If not, then I am greatly disappointed in him.

In the Good Old Times

YOU LADIES

Who Were Careful Shoppers, could wander down Water Street, or perhaps up the Middle Street

AND GET A BARGAIN

in a Remnant or in perhaps

A BIT OF POUND COTTON.

With housewifely vision and foresight you could see how these purchases would make up satisfactorily and economically. Even on the ordinary piece goods you could often see your way clear to save money in the making up, rather than buying readymade goods.

"But Them Happy Days is Past."

Now 'tis a strain on one's brain to know how to make ends meet, and on one's purse 'tis worse. For that reason we are going to let you in on a secret. Possibly some ladies know it already. However, the secret is,—

YOU CAN BUY

Ladies' Readymade Wear

BLAIR'S

far cheaper than it can be made up or purchased elsewhere.

There are various reasons for this. The most important is, that these goods were booked before the last great rise in prices, and the materials with which they are made, before the other big rise previously. The next important reason is our conscience. As you are aware, the White Shirting that we used to sell at about 12c. per yard has, on late purchases, to be retailed at about 35c. to 40c. yard, and we hate to mention the price.

But the Prices of Our Ladies' White Wear we feel we can mention with pride to any customer. We have at the moment for the early purchaser a large stock of Ladies' White Embroidered Cambric Camisoles and Chemises.

Ladies' White Embroidered Cambric Knickers and Combinations.
Ladies' White Embroidered Cambric Nightdresses.
Ladies' White Embroidered Cambric Underskirts and Princess Underskirts.

ALL THESE GOODS WE ALSO HAVE IN QUANTITY

IN FLANNELETTE MAKES.

Some of the Flette Goods were last season's, and some we imported lately, so as to be able to give you decent prices next Fall. Still, there is nothing like buying ahead these times.

Ladies' Blouses.

We are getting a Name and a Fame for Ladies' Blouses, for we sell good goods at low prices in this department, most assuredly, and stylish goods.

OTHER GOOD VALUES IN

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Goods are shown in our stock of LADIES' TWEED and SERGE COSTUME SKIRTS.

LADIES' SHOWER and COVERT COATS.

LADIES' BLACK RUBBER COATS.
